

ALICE MAY ROSBOROUGH

1913 - 1996

Alice May Rosborough, 82 of Sebewaing, passed away Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 10, at Bay Medical Care Facility in Essauville following a two-year illness.

She was born Feb. 8, 1913 in Sebewaing, daughter of the late Walter H. and Julia (Graves) Wineman.

Surviving are one daughter and her husband, Sally and Robert Heidt, Unionville; three grandchildren and spouses, Lynette and Bill Eremia, Unionville; Constance and Jeff Horst, Robert and Carol Heidt, all of Sebewaing; six grandchildren, Bill and April Eremia, Jamie and Christopher Horst, Steven and Allison Heidt, also two sisters and spouses, Florence and Walter Jarvis, Essauville, and May and Harold Andrews, White Lake; two brothers and spouses, Walter and Martha Wineman, Sebewaing, and Ralph Wineman, Detroit; also one step-daughter and husband, Virginia and William Bell, Lansing; one stepson, Edward Rosborough, Arizona; two stepgrandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

One sister, Clara Wolf, preceded her in death.

Funeral service took place Saturday, Jan. 13 at 11 a.m. at Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebewaing. Rev. Fred Wilson officiated, with burial in Silverleaf Cemetery.

Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider the American Diabetes Association or the American Heart Association.