COVID-19 May Have Canceled Heritage Days 2020:

Hear the Next Best Thing on the Radio, Saturday, July 11th

By Leo Babeu

KTWH will be helping to keep alive the spirit of Heritage Days in Two Harbors with a series of encore plays of past live Heritage Days broadcasts -tune in Saturday, July 11 at 99.5 fm or stream all the shows at ktwh.org.

Here's the Line-up!!

11 AM-Noon: Hear the sizzle as Chef Uriah Hefter conducts his live outdoor version of The Hot Dish Imperative, grilling at the KTWH booth and passing along sage cooking tips and chatting up fair-goers about their favorite parts of Heritage Days. The ribs are hot, the music cool, and Uriah's banter with co-host Kim Leon reminds us of the easy going fun of those Heritage Days midway experiences.

Noon-1 PM: The brave among us will enjoy our 2018 broadcast, the world's first ever live play by play of a lutefisk toss, as KTWH covers the classic Two Harbors Heritage Days showdown between the Norwegians and Swedes. Listen in as emcees Al Anderson and Dale Moe try valiantly to describe the odd rituals and slippery, slimy action in this suspense-filled contest that is hard on winners and losers alike.

1 PM- 2:20, or so: Listen in to a classic edition of the always sunny Heritage Days Parade, as our radio anchors Big Dave Anderson (of Beat Farm fame) and KTWH host (now city councilor) Jackie Rennwald observe the throngs of humanity that make our parade special. From classic cars to clown bands to candy to musical youth to candy to dancers, marchers, more candy and some well behaved animals - it's all there in a busy 75 minute or so flashback of energy and nostalgia, available only on Two Harbors Community Radio. This will be the best we get until we get back our public celebration, hopefully in 2021. In the meantime, KTWH is happy to provide listeners a taste of Heritage Days on the Radio.

KTWH is celebrating FIVE years of hearing local voices on Radio With A Lake View, 99.5 FM, online at ktwh.org.
