

King, Walter

Walter John King, 84, a former long time resident of Center Line and Caseville, died Thursday, July 4, 2002 in Shelby Nursing Center in Shelby Township. Walter was born September 24, 1917 in Detroit. He worked as a millwright at Chrysler 8 Mile Stamping Plant for 42 years. In his retirement he had been active with senior citizens groups. He is survived by two daughters: Lorraine Bianchini and her husband, Raymond, and Barbara King; one son, Jerrold King and his wife, Lori; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Anna. A funeral mass will take place at noon Saturday, July 6, 2002, at St. Peter Catholic Church in Mt. Clemens, with Fr. Mike Cooney officiating. There will be a rosary service at 7 p.m. Friday at Ford Funeral Home, Center Line. Visitation will be 3 to 9 p.m. Friday at the funeral home and 11:30 a.m. until the time of the service at the church. Memorials may be made to the Capuchins.