At the next membership meeting: colored pencil artist Phil Wilson

Phillip plans to give a short history of his art experience, and will bring a couple of books that show different techniques and styles using colored pencil. He will also bring a work in progress and give a short demonstration on how he uses colored pencils to create fine art.

Phillip Wilson worked as a commercial artist for 10 years before turning his energy to fine art. Since changing his approach, Phil has won numerous awards, especially for his portrait commissions. His attention to human expression, and the environment his work represents, creates life-long memories for his family, friends and clients.

His work has been featured in books and magazines on art technique and collections that grace the walls of many homes and businesses. In addition, he has accepted special commissions such as The Dresden Series prints and a series of greeting cards for Genesis Healthcare Systems.

Over the years, Phil's children have been subjects of various pieces. Now, he has the pleasure of creating new memories by doing portraits of his grandchildren. Phil enjoys creating landscapes and portraits and is currently accepting commissions for his work.

The 2015 Y-Bridge Arts Festival

Friday, August 7, 2015, 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. and Saturday, August 8, 2015, 11:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

This year at Zane's Landing Park in downtown Zanesville.

Linda Regula and Bob Grayson are co-directing the 2015 Y-bridge Arts Festival. "Our goal is to make the presentation of ARTS the centerpiece of this two-day festival."

Becky Joseph is looking for volunteers to work at the "Best in Show" booth at the festival. Please consider assisting the Artists' Colony after you have worked the ZAAP booth. We all need to pitch in to continue the success of this great ARTS event.

From the desk of the director: John Taylor-Lehman

Thank you Bethany Ickes for taking on the job of painting the rain barrel for our raffle at the Y-Bridge Festival.

Thank you to all the members who regularly sit at the gallery. It is important to keep our doors open!

The ZAAP booth needs representatives of the organization to "man the booth" to promote ZAAP by chatting with the public, sell raffle tickets, and sell your own art work. A sign up sheet will be available at the next meeting. It is essential for you to do your part and sign up for a shift.

Since ZAAP has a booth Y-Bridge Festival, we are entitled to enter the Best in Show competition. If you are interested in being ZAAP's representative you must be at the July 23rd membership meeting. A random drawing for a member representative will be held at that meeting.

The rescheduled date for the ZAAP outing to Mission Oaks Gardens is Sunday July 19th. You may visit any time that day but we will meet for lunch at noon in the education building off Euclid Ave. If you can't make it that day you are encouraged to go on your own to capture ideas for works of art to be displayed in September. The "Free Range" exhibition will be at the McIntire Library gallery. <http://www.missionoaksgardens.org/>

It is time to be thinking about who will be leading ZAAP in 2016. The current officers and board members have been serving for the past 2 yrs., though some of these members have been serving much longer! If you are interested in serving but need more information before you commit, please contact me. Nominations are also welcome. The by-laws require that the lists of candidates must be presented at the Oct. meeting. Voting takes place at the November meeting.

Since the ZAAP Gallery will not be open on the First Friday in August, we will be having a "soft opening" on August 21st. This opening will celebrate the exhibition, "Refrigerator Art": The art work of children. The gallery really needs your help for this exhibition and opening to be a success. Please start collecting works from young artists that can be displayed during August. The work does not have to be framed. This work can be dropped off during our regular monthly times. July 30-31 and August 1-2 between 1-5 pm. ZAAP artists' work will also be displayed during August.

Yan Sun Art Museum August News

On August 4, Zanesville Museum of Art will have an event, "Painting with Chinese Artists," from 1:30pm to 3:30pm. During the event, Chinese professors paint and explain the method, and participants follow them (Chinese rice paper, brushes, and ink will be provided). This event emphasizes the involvement of our local artists and visitors. Location:

Zanesville Museum of Art, 620 Military Rd, Zanesville.

On August 20, Yan Sun Art Museum will host a painting demo event from 2:30pm to 4:00pm. Members of a Chinese art delegation, consisted of ten nationally renowned art professors, will paint in their personal styles.

Following the painting demo, there will be a ceremony specifically for the opening of the Creative Work Station of China National Academy of Painting in Yan Sun Art Museum. Location: Yan Sun Art Museum, 604 Main St.

New Event on the Horizon

The Winding Road, Athens to Zanesville "foot by foot" is a fund raiser for ARTCoZ. This exciting event will take place at the Seiler Studio on Oct. 10th from noon to 7pm. The event is FREE and open to the public. The event will feature music, food, beverages, and ART (of course). The day will culminate with the sale of art works by artists from Athens to Zanesville. All works will be on 1 ft. by 1 ft. gesso boards. The boards will soon be made available to artists who are interested in creating and donating a piece of work for this fund raiser. More news to come.
