Sunday Meditation

I read about a man who prayed this all-encompassing prayer: "Lord, bless everyone everywhere for all times. Amen." We smile at the absurdity, knowing that God can't bless everyone. This earth groans under a curse, rebel nations "take counsel against the LORD and against His Christ" (Ps. 2:2); "the whole world lies under the Evil One" (1 John 5:19). And yet there is one all-encompassing prayer we should pray—for God to bring His rebel earth again under His righteous rule. The psalmist prayed: "Let the whole earth be filled with His glory" (72:19). We pray, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven" (Matt. 6:10). One day heavenly voices will proclaim: "the kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ" (Rev. 11:16); and then He "will rule the nations with a rod of iron" (Rev. 12:5). . All for Jesus, Richard
