For Kids of All Ages ... Get Involved, Get Informed & Get Going!
WORKING FOR THE BETTERMENT OF KIDS, PEOPLE & THE PLANET!

I 6 THINGS PROGRAM GUIDE:

- Reference Book Series: Executive Director and Author, Lyle Benjamin, created a reference book series of over two dozen books each depicting I 6 problems people encounter in specific areas of their lives, their normal unproductive responses, and “The Real Deal” — the steps they need to do and why — to solve the problems. Each problem is also addressed by two industry experts that give their testimony as to the why and how to address the issue. The books form a network of reference books that are used in “Better Communication & Literacy Workshops.”

- Better Communication & Literacy Workshops: Each workshop is for up to ten kids and lasts eight to twelve weeks. Kids read out loud to the group the problems and then spend time discussing the collateral issues. Just like the reasons college students join fraternities and sororities, kids in the workshops benefit from peer support, social networking, and contacts for later on in life. When the workshops are for kids, no adults are allowed. BCL Workshops are available through schools, libraries and organizations.

- National Kid’s Month: Presidential Proclamation Petition: “There is no question that as this generation of children grows into adults they will contend with the most difficult issues this country has ever faced over an extended period of time. While parents, schools and religious organizations do their best to educate their youth, there is no concerted effort to both engage the children in a unified systematic approach to the core issues while at the same time acknowledging, educating, and rewarding them for their efforts in exploring, learning, and working towards solutions to problems they effectively inherited.

Establishing the program in August coincides with children’s, parents and school schedules and provides a pathway to growth, development, maturity and success that will have tremendous rewards during the school year and beyond.

We propose that each week in August focus on these key issues:

Week 1: Health, Fitness, Nutrition & Wellness

Week 2: Business, Finance & Life Skills

Week 3: Literacy & Writing Skills

Week 4: Volunteering, Mentoring & Public Service

The on-going goals of the program are to:

- 1) Bring needed attention and education to these subjects
- 2) Create mechanisms that encourage voluntary participation by kids
- 3) Acknowledge said participation, and lastly
- 4) Foster attitudes and environments that help perpetuate commitment to these issues

- Internship, Work Experience & Career Track Programs: The mission of our Internship Program is to provide opportunities for students and graduates to work on real world projects in order to develop their communication, business, office technology, marketing, management, leadership, research, problem solving and time management skills that will be of benefit to them both professionally and personally.

- I 6 Things Social Responsibility Clubs: Program works to establish and run clubs in colleges, high schools and communities that focus on diverse areas of interest that coincide with the Mission and programs of the organization. Clubs are all-inclusive and work to give members communication, administrative, business, management skills while provide valuable contents to members: Sub-Clubs include: I 6 Things Book Club, Global Initiative Club, Social Responsibility Club, Library Club, Social Media Club, Health & Nutrition Club, Mentoring Club, Volunteer Club, Internship Club, etc. The focus of a Club may be limited to the school or community, or encompass the state, nation or globe depending on the objectives of each particular group. Clubs can work independently or network through the I 6 Things Web Portal.
