PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

President's Message:

Please read the bulletin for upcoming dates.... Listen for the updates at the meetings.

Just as a reminder...dues are increasing just a little bit...Del Hodges will explain at our Assembly.

And now we are heading into a very busy few months of Rotary activity. SFRC Christmas Party, Children's Holiday Party, Orient Express, Celebrity Waiter Dinner, District Convention, and a few others that will pop up. We are happy, and proud, to be able to assist the community, and show our 'Rotary'. We always can use help. Even if you are new, please join us in serving.

We will be inviting students from Columbia College Business classes to a meeting, and maybe even research and start up a community-based Rotoract Club (Ages 18-30).

Hoping you have warm, wonderful, memorable Holidays!!

*Congratulations to Kaenen Whitman
Our President Elect Nominee for 2017-18*

Australian Exchange Student Arrives January 11th

Jessie Tunbridge will arrive on January 11, 2015 and be with us until February 18th. Aimee Campiotti is working to fill her schedule with host families and activities.

Don't miss this opportunity to meet an Aussie and learn about her life in Ballarat.

Call Aimee at 743-9815
to volunteer!

Jessie is an 18 year old who is working full time in a hospital radiology department. She enjoys: exercise, getting out doors, shopping, cooking, NBA Basketball, skiing, the beach, zoos, running, hiking and eating vegetarian.

She would like to visit:

Yosemite, San Francisco, San Diego Zoo, Santa Monica Pier, Aquarium, Fisherman's Warf and the Golden Gate Bridge.

She doesn't like museums and will not eat meat or fish.

This will be Jessie's first trip overseas.

Rain or Shine!

We need your help at the 30th Annual Orient Express Run.
