John 3:16

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, and whoever believes in Him will not perish but have everlasting life"

Chaplain's Message

Pressing Forward Philippians 3:12-14 (ASV)

12 Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect: But I press on, if so be that I may lay hold on that for which also I was laid hold on by Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself yet to have laid hold: But one thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before,

14 I press on toward the goal unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

If ever there was an Apostle that faced so many issues in his life after God called him into the Ministry it was Paul. He was ship wrecked, persecuted, beaten, put in prison, all this for the cause of Christ. I'm sure if we had to face any of these issues our faith would be tested.

"Forgetting the things which are behind." Whether good or bad we MUST press forward to those things which are ahead even though the storm may be raging in your circumstances. Don't dwell on the past, but press on to the mark (goal or prize) God has set for us as an individual or as a Christian Classic Cruisers Club member.

The Prez Sayz!

Our April cruise was almost a rain out. We had between 80 to 85 cars. Thanks to all who judged so we got through quickly and got trophies passed out before the rain arrived at 7:30 pm. Even though we were in a hurry things went smoothly. We bypassed the kids games due to the weather. Shortly after we finished up the rain came and everyone made it home safely. Hopefully there will be good weather on May 16th and we will have another successful show.

The turn out at the April breakfast was light. Afterwards some went on to Denton for the drag races.

See you at the next meeting on May 12th.

Ladies Corner

Wow! What a fun night at Leslie's house playing Bunco. Dinner was very good and we had 16 ladies who were "a little wild" at the tables. The rain did not dampen our game and lots of laughs were enjoyed. The winners were:

Most Buncos: Linda Walker (3)

Most Small Buncos: Suzette French (8)

Most Wins: Phyllis Veach (13)

Most Losses: Tie- Laura Labarbara & Nina Bianco (12 each)

May Bunco will be hosted by Anita Hale at Phyllis Veach's home on the THIRD MONDAY, May 18th, due to the Memorial Day Holiday. Hope to have a good turn out. Let me know if you are not able to attend.

Book Report on the Entire Bible

Submitted by Burl Hurley

I am glad that I did not need to grade this paper. The young man has real talent though. A little shaky on dates but good chronology. A sixth grade child was asked to write a book report on the entire Bible. Here is what he wrote;

The Children's Bible in a Nutshell

In the beginning, which occurred near the start, there was nothing but God, darkness, and some gas. The Bible says, "The Lord thy God is one," but I think He must be a lot older than that.

Anyway, God said, "Give me a light!" and someone did. Then God made the world.

He split the Adam and made Eve. Adam and Eve were naked, but they weren't embarrassed because mirrors hadn't been invented yet. Adam and Eve disobeyed God by eating one bad apple, so they were driven from the Garden of Eden ... Not sure what they were driven in though, because they didn't have cars.

Adam and Eve had a son, Cain, who hated his brother as long as he was Abel. Pretty soon all of the early people died off, except for Methuselah, who lived to be like a million or something.

One of the next important people was Noah, who was a good guy, but one of his kids was kind of a Ham. Noah built a large boat and put his family and some animals on it. He asked some other people to join him, but they said they would have to take a rain check.

After Noah came Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Jacob was more famous than his brother, Esau, because Esau sold Jacob his birthmark in exchange for some pot roast. Jacob had a son named Joseph who wore a really loud sports coat.

Another important Bible guy is Moses, whose real name was Charlton Heston. Moses led the Israel Lights out of Egypt and away from the evil Pharaoh after God sent ten plagues on Pharaoh's people. These plagues included frogs, mice, lice, bowels, and no cable.

God fed the Israel Lights every day with manicotti. Then he gave them His Top Ten Commandments. These include: don't lie, cheat, smoke, dance, or covet your neighbor's stuff. Oh, yeah, I just thought of one more: Humor thy father and thy mother.

One of Moses' best helpers was Joshua who was the first Bible guy to use spies. Joshua fought the battle of Geritol and the fence fell over on the town.

After Joshua came David. He got to be king by killing a giant with a slingshot. He had a son named Solomon who had about 300 wives and 500 porcupines. My teacher says he was wise, but that doesn't sound very wise to me.

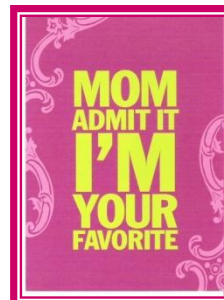

After Solomon there were a bunch of major league prophets. One of these was Jonah, who was swallowed by a big whale and then barfed up on the shore. There were also some minor league prophets, but I guess we don't have to worry about them.

After the Old Testament came the New Testament. Jesus is the star of The New Testament. He was born in Bethlehem in a barn. (I wish I had been born in a barn too, because my mom is always saying to me, "Close the door! Were you born in a barn?" It would be nice to say, "As a matter of fact, I was.")

During His life, Jesus had many arguments with sinners like the Pharisees and the Republicans. Jesus also had twelve opossums. The worst one was Judas Asparagus. Judas was so evil that they named a terrible vegetable after him.

Jesus was a great man. He healed many leopards and even preached to some Germans on the Mount. But the Democrats and all those guys put Jesus on trial before Pontius the Pilot. Pilot didn't stick up for Jesus. He just washed his hands instead.

Anyways, Jesus died for our sins, then came back to life again. He went up to Heaven but will be back at the end of the Aluminum. His return is foretold in the book of Revolution.

Trailer inspection requirements to be more strictly enforced

New owners of some of almost 600,000 travel trailers, boat trailers and utility trailers registered with the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles may be surprised when they next receive notice to renew their annual trailer registration.

Some will learn they have been violating a law of which they were not aware.

As of March 1, registration renewal notices sent to owners of trailers with expired registration are notification that the trailer is required to have passed a safety inspection at a state-certified vehicle inspection station within 90 days prior to the new registration's sticker being issued. Without proof of safety inspection, you cannot renew your trailer registration.

"Some trailer owners haven't been aware of the safety inspection requirement," said Candy Southerland, management analyst with Texas DMV. "I've even talked with trailer dealers who were surprised when they learned certain trailers fall under the inspection requirements."

Ignored for years

Texas law has for decades required annual safety inspection of trailers with a gross weight (weight of trailer plus its carrying capacity or actual load) of more than 4,500 pounds. That includes travel trailers, most dual-axle boat trailers and many larger utility trailers such as those hunters use to haul tractors, ATVs, blinds and other equipment to hunting leases.

Most Texans were unaware of this law.

Texas DMV has no way to reliably estimate the rate of non-compliance with the trailer safety inspection requirement, Southerland said. While officers have regularly written citations when they encounter violations of trailer inspection requirements, overall enforcement of the requirement has been modest.

Inspection first

Under a law passed by the 2013 session of the Texas Legislature, annual vehicle safety inspection requirements will remain the same, but certification stickers will no longer be issued. Inspection stations will send electronic notification to the DMV that a vehicle (trailer, motor vehicle) has passed the safety inspection and issue a certification document to the vehicle owner.

Before a vehicle can be registered or renew current registration and is issued an annual registration sticker, the vehicle owner must have proof, either in the DMV database or by showing the inspection document, that the vehicle has a currently valid safety inspection. This is similar to the requirement that the owner of a motor vehicle show proof of insurance before being able to get a motor vehicle inspected or registered.

Because expiration dates of safety inspection certification and vehicle registration are, in many cases, different, the new law will be phased in over the coming year until, in 2016, both safety inspection and registration will be due the same month. Safety inspections will have to be done within 90 days of the registration expiring.

With the new law making it impossible to register a new vehicle or renew a registration without that vehicle having passed a safety inspection, trailer owners who were either unaware of the inspection requirement or simply ignored it and took their chances will be forced to get those trailers inspected.

Finding a station

While most of the 11,000 state-certified vehicle inspection stations in Texas are certified to inspect trailers, some are not. And some have limited space and might not be able to accommodate a large travel trailer or particularly large boats and their trailers. A searchable database of Texas vehicle inspection stations is available on the Texas Department of Public Safety's website: dps.texas.gov.

To pass the safety inspection, the trailer must have an operational brake system, tires and wheel assembly that meets state requirements, and all lights — tail-lights, brake lights, license plate light, side-marker lights and clearance lights — must be operational. Also, the trailer must have side and rear reflectors.

We received this from a member of the Cassville Cruisers. The auctioneer says there are 451 cars, owned by 2 brothers who started buying cars 30 years ago, and they have been sitting out in fields, starting bids will be $300 (because they will bring that at the crusher) and everything must go by the end of day. All will need some repair but he said there might be some that you could put a new battery in and drive off in it, but they will need new tires since they have been sitting (and probably new gaskets if I was guessing). Some are in worse shape than others. I did not get the man's name, but the (479) 236-8879 number is his cell phone and you can call him anytime for more info. If you could please pass along to the Mustang and Chevy Clubs, they might find some interest in the flyer.

All the cars have been sitting for 20+ years, some are complete some are parts cars, but they have most years Impalas, lots of Novas and Chevelles, a few Corvettes including a 1960 model. Some GTOs, a few Firebirds, early Barracudas [humpbacks], Chargers, a couple of Challengers, several Chevy pickups. There is some old stuff but I don't think they even know for sure what it is. It should be online soon.
