Membership

We are hostessing our next Meet & Greet on Tuesday, February 12, 2019, at 10:00 am at the home of one of our members in Delray Beach. We have extended invitations to several prospective members as well as new members who have recently joined, and those who transferred into our section in the past few months. If you know of anyone who has either expressed an interest in NCJW or who you think would enjoy becoming involved, please send me their names and email addresses and I will extend an invitation to them as well. We look forward to a lively and interactive meeting.

Remember, it's through growth that we remain a vital and meaningful organization.

Volunteer Spotlight: Gail Weinbrum

This month we introduce a new feature: our Volunteer Spotlight, where we give you the chance to meet our volunteers. Gail Weinbrum was chosen because she is extremely active in our advocacy projects. This month's question is: "Why do you do what you do?"

I find it is so important to acknowledge volunteers although, speaking at least for myself, that is not why we do what we do.

I have always said "I get back way more than I give!" And to quote Audrey Hepburn....."As you grow older, you will discover that you have two hands, one for helping yourself, the other for helping others."

Thank you so much for all you do, Gail.

Florida NCJW Legislative Days

This year's Legislative Days will be March 12-13, 2019

You are invited to go to Tallahassee to meet with your State legislators to discuss your concerns and advocate for NCJW policies, together with a delegation from other Florida sections. Hotel and travel costs will be partially reimbursed by SE-Atlantic Section. Interested? Contact Lillian Kaminer, VP Advocacy, lekaminer@aol.com.

Washington Institute 2019

Join us in Washington on April 7-9, 2019

Registration is now open for the 2019 Washington Institute. The Institute starts with speakers, panels, and workshops on issues, advocacy skills, leadership, and policy, preparing you for a day of visits to your members of Congress. Appointments with Senators and Representatives will be scheduled.

To register, go to www.NCJW.org and follow the Washington Institute link. SE-Atlantic Section will reimburse a portion of the cost, based on the number of members who attend. Questions? Contact Arlene Davidson at: amdavidson01@gmail.com or Penny Gelb at pgelb@comcast.net.

All who have attended in other years have found this to be an unforgettable experience.

Gun Safety

There will be a joint meeting of the LWV and NCJW gun safety committees on February 13 at 10:00 at the Valencia Falls Clubhouse on 13375 Valencia Grand Blvd. in Delray Beach. We will be discussing our new "Lock it Up" campaign which is in the planning stages.

Volunteers with energy and ideas are needed.

If interested, contact Rosalie Almborg at 561 865 2500 or roasted@bellsouth.net.

A Place of Hope Outreach (The Chapstick Program)

Our upcoming Boca outreach dates are February 23rd, March 16th, April 13th at 1:15 PM. We meet at Starbucks (corner of Yamato and Congress in Boca) to discuss our plan for the day.

Initial training is at 10:00 AM, February 20th, March 14th and April 11th at Place of Hope in Boca. We've identified additional hotels and enhanced our discussions with the hotel/motel clerks.

The number of Outreach Volunteers is growing. However, we have room for many more. Please join us as we search for missing and exploited local kids.

AGING and SEX: HaHaHa!

A Presentation by the Ever-Popular Joyce Saltman, Ed.D.

Through a minimum of scientific data and a maximum of humor, this program will deal with the trials and tribulations of being a senior! Joyce will show the beauty of having loving relationships rather than Olympic sex. How insignificant "perfect bodies" are (when our vision isn't that good anyway!), and how to see all of our aging issues in a humorous light.

WHEN: Monday, March 18, 2019, 10:00 AM

WHERE: Grand Villa West

5859 Heritage Park Way, Delray Beach

COST: Complimentary- RSVP required

RSVP by March 11: <http://tinyurl.com/NCJW-Mar18-2019>

Joyce Saltman is a professor Emeritus of Special Education at Southern Connecticut State University in New Haven, CT. She chose to receive her doctoral degree from Columbia, because she loved the color of their doctoral gown. It was no small feat that she was able to persuade her mentor to allow her to write her dissertation on "Humor in Adult Learning." She also holds four graduate degrees in the fields of Special Education and Counseling. Joyce's innovative teaching style has led to the development of a graduate course entitled, "The Enhancement of Learning Through Humor," as well as a summer institute called, "Healing, Education, Laughter and Play (HELP)."

Community Service

We never stop!!! For the next two months our focus is on pre-school eye screening. Thanks to our Pre-School Mitzvah Mama Renee Markus for organizing this program at for schools. Thank you to all our experienced and new volunteers. You will love it and be ready to sign up for next year.

Marsha Lotstein met with a few of her champion shoppers to continue the growth of our Kid's Closet project which began with only one school last year and is now up to four and growing. We have received wonderful feedback from the schools as they have called us to tell us how much they appreciate our providing the emergency clothing they need and letting us know that, while we were concentrating on littler ones, they need larger sizes as well. Their gratitude has really been rewarding.

Finally, although Pesach may seem far away, "late" this year, (first Seder Friday April 19,) our Holiday On Wheels coordinator Cynthia Shulman will be asking for volunteers soon. If you are interested in joining us in one of our most successful activities bringing the holidays to local residential facilities from Boca to Boynton, look for an announcement of an informational meeting in March. Keep your eyes open for details of facilities, dates and times and try to keep some time from April 7th -17 available to participate. Presentations are almost always in the afternoons, after 1 for about an hour and a half. You only have to volunteer for one of the 6 or 7 opportunities but you will find you want to do more.

Thank you again to our Mitzvah Mama (and Papa) Corps for all you've done. You are GREATLY appreciated!

Jewish Leader of Tomorrow Scholarships

Are you interested in making a difference in the future of a high school senior Jewish girl in our community?

Have you thought about volunteering for a committee, but only want to give it a try without a big commitment?

Please join the NCJW Scholarship Committee. We grant an annual scholarship to a deserving senior who presents an application to our committee. We meet on a Sunday morning in March to review the essays and select the recipients. The essays are compelling and we are often moved by the girls' stories.

If you would like to join us, please contact Ellen Hahn at ellenberk@hotmail.com and we would be happy to have you join us.

THE PLACE OF HOPE LUNCHEON

On January 22, our tireless members Susan Kanoff and Arlene Davidson were recognized for their commitment to the Hope Campaign Outreach. Over 250 people attended the sold out event. NCJW was specifically mentioned as an organization at the forefront of battling sex trafficking, by State Attorney Dave Aronberg and County Commissioner Melissa McKinlay in their remarks. Our reputation for activism and accomplishment is well known!

The outreach campaign to prevent and educate the public about sex trafficking includes monthly visits to local hotels and motels where our trained volunteers speak with front desk staff to ask about missing and potentially exploited children. Volunteers refer the information received to local authorities for follow up. To help fight this scourge contact Arlene Davidson at amdavidson01@gmail.com and get involved

Computer Printing Tip:

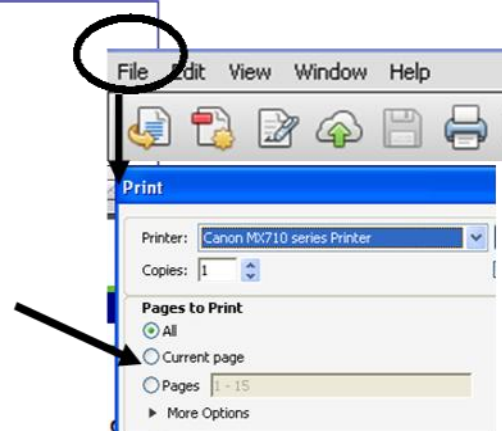

Have you ever wanted to print out only one page of a bulletin? Here's how it works on a PC:

At the top of the screen, do not click on the printer picture. Instead click on the word FILE, then click on PRINT.

After the PRINT box shows, select from the Pages To Print options.

ALL = prints every page in the document

CURRENT PAGE = prints only the page that the cursor is on
