This professional development segment provides teachers with a wide variety of checks for understanding and a clear plan as to how to modify their instruction based on those checks for understanding. This segment emphasizes both the need for effective and frequent checks for understanding AND modification of the instruction based on the gathered data.

Topics to be discussed:

- What are checks for understanding and what are they not?
- What is a clear plan for utilizing effective checks for understanding?
- How to know when and how to utilize checks for understanding.
- How to modify instruction based on the checks for understanding.
- How to involve parents and other students in effective checks for understanding.
- How to utilize group work, homework and other class work as effective checks for understanding.
- How exit passes can be effective checks for understanding.
- How checks for understanding can and must drive instruction.

Key Take a ways:

- A usable resource of proven checks for understanding.
- Opportunities to learn collaboratively in regards to future checks for understanding.
- Where and when effective checks for understanding fit and when they will not.
- How to modify instruction without derailing an entire lesson.
- How to use other students to modify instruction.

We customize our packages for each individual school district based upon their needs, their wants and their challenges.
