

Student/Staff for May at Plano High School

Plano High School staff nominated students for “Student of the Month” for the month of May. Students are nominated for PRIDE behavior, Personal Responsibility, Respect, Involved Academically, Demonstrates safe behavior, and Excellence in what they do. Some reasons for nomination include showing leadership with staff and students, excellent work ethic, balances extra-curricular activities and academics well, helps other students, shows desire to success, passion for technology. Students of the month of May are Emmanuel Valles, Jordan Heller, Adela Martinez, Rylee Palmer, Connor Kensel, Shannen Paxton, and Bradly Peterson.

Students and administration nominated staff members for “Staff Member of the Month” for May.

Some reasons for nomination include being a person of great character and integrity, led the high school to being recognized for their many achievements, has best interests of students and staff when making decisions, and possesses a high standard of professionalism. Nominated unanimously for Staff Member for May is Eric Benson who fits the role in all of these skills. Students and staff who were nominated have received a certificate as well as participating in a breakfast in their honor. Please congratulate these students and staff when you see them.

Staff and student members for the month process is coordinated by Kate Collingbourne, social worker with Student Services at Plano High School. This process is part of the Positive Behavior Intervention and Supports (PBIS) in place at Plano High School.
