Announcements

General:

Next Sunday there will be a special collection for World Mission Sunday.

RCIA classes will be on Tuesdays at 10:30am at Nativity. First phase is called “Inquiry.” If interested in participating in RCIA or learning more about it, contact Jewell Lee at 701-260-2857 or Connie Lucero at 503-556-2514.

Nativity:

Our next fund raiser is in November with our bazaar. We are always looking for donated crafts made with your loving hands. The Women Crafters meet on Mondays from 10am-12pm. Please come by and visit to see what we have for the bazaar. There are only a few crafters so if you will be able to participate, the crafters will be very grateful. We will also have a bake sale during the bazaar. Your delicious homemade items will be welcomed. More information will be given later.

Bible Study meets every Wednesday at 6:30pm in the hall.

St. Johns:

St. Johns needs to examine its financial situation. Parishioners are asked to give some thoughts to how to cut costs and increase resources. There will be a “town hall” meeting in October.

Ladies’ Bible Study & Reflection is on Thursdays. Adoration is at 9:45am in the Church. After Adoration, everyone meets at Kathy’s. If interested, call Kathy Reandeau at 503-728-3149.

The Eucharist and Reconciliation

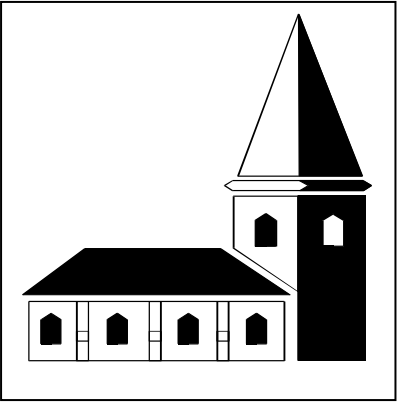

“Love for the Eucharist leads to a growing appreciation of the Sacrament of Reconciliation” and promotes a sense of “the need to be in a state of grace in order to approach sacramental communion worthily.”

A “balanced and sound practice of gaining indulgences, whether for oneself or for the dead, can be helpful for a renewed appreciation of the relationship between the Eucharist and Reconciliation,” helping us to understand that “by our efforts alone we would be incapable of making reparation for the wrong we have done, and that the sins of each individual harm the whole community.”

Indulgences bring to mind “not only the doctrine of Christ’s infinite merits, but also that of the Communion of the Saints,” and “reminds us ‘how closely we are united to each other in Christ... and how the supernatural life of each can help others.’ Since the conditions for gaining an indulgence include going to confession and receiving sacramental Communion, this practice can effectively sustain the faithful on their journey of conversion and in rediscovering the centrality of the Eucharist in the Christian life.”
