Goodbye 2018... Hello 2019!

I hope all of you had a very Merry Christmas! I will be sending out some Thank You cards for a while because of great generosity from both parishes. Sometimes I may miss someone in this rush of giving so I want to be sure to thank all of you who wished me a Merry Christmas through you voice, prayers, cards, and gifts, etc. Your kindness touched my heart.

This week we have the joy of starting a new year! What will 2019 hold for us as individuals and parishes? I do know that 'with God, all things are possible!' Like Christmas, January 1 is a Holy Day of Obligation (Mary, Mother of God) and there will be two Masses for this celebration. December 31 there will be a Vigil Mass at Sacred Heart at 4:30 p.m. January 1 there will be a Mass at St. Joseph at 10:30 a.m.

On Wednesday January 2 there will be a Holy Hour at St. Joseph (7 p.m.). The theme will be "Blessings for the New Year." Please come and pray for a good new year for the world, our country, our Catholic Church, our Diocese, our parishes, our schools, our families, etc. It is an opportunity to thank God for all that He gives us and to ask for strength and wisdom for the new year.

Next week I will be on vacation from Sunday January 6 (after the Masses) until Saturday January 12. There will be no Holy Hour or Confessions on that Saturday, but I will be back for the Vigil Mass (4:30 p.m.) at Sacred Heart. Some of the things I will be doing on my vacation include watching football and seeing Bob Seger in concert for the last time on his Farewell Tour! There will be no Holy Hours or Masses scheduled for the week but there will be a list of area parishes and their weekday Mass times for you to refer to in next weekends' bulletin. Christmas season does not officially end until January 13 with the Baptism of the Lord. After that celebration we will go back to the ordinary time color of green.

Here are some of my wishes for 2019- Planned Parenthood will be defunded, people will stop demonizing those they don't agree with, people will think before they post something on twitter, the branches of government will work with each other instead of against each other, Notre Dame will win the National Championship in college football, very little snow, lots of sunshine, lots of converts to the Catholic faith and that the Catholic Church learns from its past mistakes.

Remember 'with God, all things are possible'!

Thanks, and God Bless!!

Fr. Chris
