WAYCROSS PARTNERS ENTERS INTO PARTNERSHIP WITH NAVIAN CAPITAL

Louisville, KY – November 14, 2016: Waycross Partners announced today it will be working in collaboration with Cincinnati-based Navian Capital to market its investment strategies. The partnership brings together the investment management expertise of Waycross Partners and the extensive distribution network of Navian Capital. Waycross Managing Partner and Founder Ben Thomas shared his excitement about partnering with such an experienced and talented marketing team. “Navian Capital has experience marketing low volatility strategies in the banking and RIA channels and will also be a resource for operational and compliance support.” The partnership allows Waycross to focus primarily on investment management and delivering superior risk-adjusted investment returns to clients. Tim Bonacci, Navian’s President and CEO, also sees value in the partnership. “Waycross Partners’ investment strategies complement our existing product offerings and allow us to further scale our firm’s resources.”

Also effective this week, the name of Waycross Partner’s existing mutual fund will be changed to reflect the company’s alliance with Navian Capital. The fund will be called Navian Waycross Long/Short Equity Fund (Ticker: WAYEX).
