MONTHLY NEWSLETTER | CHAPEL HILL UMC | MARCH 2018

HOLY WEEK SERVICES

Holy Week is the last week of Lent, the week immediately preceding Easter. It is observed in many Christian churches as a time to commemorate and enact the suffering (Passion) and death of Jesus Christ.

March 25th, Palm Sunday

Our Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday. The children will bring palms into the sanctuary and lay them at the base of the cross during the 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. services. The choir will perform a Cantata during the 11:00 a.m. service. If you love to sing, the choir would love for you to join them for the cantata. The choir meets each Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. for practice.

March 29th, Maundy Thursday

Maundy Thursday or Holy Thursday, is the day we remember Jesus sharing the Lord's Supper with his disciples. We, his disciples, receive it at this special service. We will have a service at 6:30 p.m. The service will include a special time of communion in the Fellowship Hall.

EASTER EGG HUNT

Saturday, March 31st, we will be having our Easter Egg Hunt! The doors will open at 10:00 with the hunt beginning at 10:30 a.m. The Children's Department would appreciate any candy donations and/or small toys to fit inside the plastic eggs. (At this time they do not need any plastic eggs.) Please drop donations in the large Easter basket in the narthex. Early registration for VBS will also be taking place at this time!

Online Donations

THE PASTOR'S CORNER:

QUIET CHURCH BELLS

"But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel: Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you; when you walk through fire you shall not be burned, and the flame shall not consume you."

(Isaiah 43:1-2)

The above noted text makes a clear point that the One who redeemed us has the right to call us His. This is more than just a poetic notion or a philosophical position. It's a life-altering reality! One of the themes of my ministry is a deep seated conviction that every one of us has a unique purpose intended by the God who brought us together. We don't just come to church, we are the Church. And as the Church we have been called by God to do something spiritually significant and culturally relevant. There's no limit to what God can do through us if we'll work together.

Along these lines, the question we should continually ask ourselves is, "Why am I here and what does God want to do through me?" That's a question that should be asked early in life. It's always a tragedy to hear someone in the final stages of life ask that question in its past tense: "Why was I here and what did God want to do through me?" By that time the question is inevitably answered too late.

However, having said all that, I must caution you, that if you ask that question with any degree of sincerity before God, you may just discover your calling. And a calling can change the course of a life. It can change what we do and where we do it! It can change our priorities and our passions. It can change the essence of who we say we are. But I count it worth the risk, because the proper response to a calling is simply the fulfillment of who we were created to be. How sad to think that many potentials in the Church are never realized.

"I had been my whole life a bell, and never knew it until at that moment I was lifted and struck"

(Annie Dillard)

LETTER FROM AMY

Dear Church,

As Christians, we have a complicated relationship with the cross. The cross is written across our foreheads on Ash Wednesday. We wear signs of the cross on necklaces and bracelets. And we look to the cross and remember that it was there that our Savior died, where he groaned in pain. To be a Christian is to remember that salvation and suffering go hand in hand.

But isn't that like the times we are living in now? A time of complicated relationships, of pain and suffering existing alongside hope? The cross represents the best and worst sides of the world. And as Christians, living in the shadow of the cross and the light of the resurrection, we are to take that message to the world. Yes, there is suffering. But there is also hope, hope that is a gift from God to His beloved children.

I hope that this Lenten season is one where we seek the power of the cross. I think of the hymn that states, "At the cross, at the cross where I first saw the light, and the burden of my heart rolled away." The cross is where we lay down our burdens and find rest. My prayer for us is when we travel with Jesus to the cross, we find the hope of resurrection in the light of our trials.

Many Blessings,
Pastor Amy

How to Make Easter Meaningful for Kids

As a Christian parent, it can feel like you must decide between two extremes during the Easter season: a fun celebration or a reverent remembrance. Thankfully, you can do both!

The Easter season is a tricky one. Though it's set aside as a time to appreciate Christ's death and resurrection, the true meaning is often lost in chocolate bunnies, colorful eggs and pretty dresses. As a Christian parent, it can feel like you must decide between two extremes: a fun celebration or a reverent remembrance.

Thankfully, you can choose both.

After all, the tomb is empty and our Savior is alive! If ever there were a reason to laugh and cry, this is it. You can make the most of Easter weekend by including your kids in the celebration. Share with them the story of the first Easter. Don't be afraid to get personal—explain why this holiday means so much to you.

Then head to the kitchen for a fun activity that drives home the lesson.

Resurrection Rolls

- ◆ Large marshmallows, one per child
- ◆ 1 can refrigerated crescent rolls, divided into pre-cut triangles
- ◆ Melted butter
- ◆ Cinnamon and sugar, mixed to taste

Preheat your oven as directed on crescent-roll packaging. Give each child a marshmallow. Explain that the marshmallow represents Jesus' body. Read Mark 15:1–39 out loud. We recommend the New International Reader's Version for kids. If your children are of reading age, have them take turns reading the story.

Next, talk about what Jesus went through as he was mocked, beaten, and hung on a cross. Give each child a crescent roll triangle. Explain that the crescent roll represents the tomb. Read John 19:38–42 out loud.

Now instruct your children to roll the marshmallows in the butter and the cinnamon/sugar mixture. Explain that this process represents the spices and linen used to prepare Jesus' body for the burial. Then have each child place the marshmallow in the crescent roll. Wrap crescent roll around the marshmallow and seal completely, symbolizing Jesus' body being closed up in the tomb.

Place the crescent rolls in the oven and bake as directed. Read Matthew 28:1–20 out loud.

While the crescent rolls are baking, ask your children to imagine what it was like for the women who went to visit Jesus' body in the tomb. Talk about the earthquake, the angel who rolled away the stone, the fact that the tomb was empty, and how Jesus met them on the road.

When the crescent rolls are lightly browned, remove them from the oven. Remind your children that the rolls represent the tomb and the marshmallows they placed inside represent Jesus body. As your kids bite into the roll, they'll find that the marshmallow is missing!

Use this surprise as a reminder that the tomb is empty too. Jesus is alive! Because He lives, we are offered the gift of salvation and the opportunity to live abundantly here on earth. He calls us to spread the good news of His resurrection with the entire world!

CHILDREN'S HAPPENINGS

When Adam and Eve decided that their way was better than God's way and broke God's rule, they changed the relationship between God and His creation. Where once everything and everyone could be in the presence of God, now we were at odds with God. God could have done anything He wanted, including wiping us out and starting over. But instead God decided to make PEACE with us. Ultimately God did this through His Son, Jesus.

When Jesus died and then rose from the dead, He paid the price for everything that was wrong and unfair in this world. BECAUSE OF JESUS, WE CAN HAVE PEACE. We don't have to get even. Instead, we can reflect the character of Christ by caring for others and making PEACE.

We look forward to seeing your kids on Sundays at 9:30am or 11am and Wednesdays at 6pm!!

PRESCHOOL NEWS

During the month of February, we taught our preschoolers the sweetest news we may ever share with them – that Jesus loves EVERYONE! They heard stories about the woman at the well, Zacchaeus, the unloved woman, and Peter.

This month we are going to reel things in by teaching our preschoolers they can be fishers of men by following Jesus. We will start the month off with a story about John the Baptist. In week two, we will hear about how Jesus said "Follow me" to four different men. During week three, we will meet Matthew the tax collector and see how he followed Jesus. Then, we will end the month celebrating Palm Sunday. You won't want to miss this special day as the children walk through the sanctuary waving their palm leaves! So we hope you and your family will join us this month as we prepare to celebrate the biggest act of love ever known to man – Easter!

MUSIC NOTES.....

Being a part of a music group has many unexpected benefits!

Become a member of the Chapel Hill Ringers- we meet on Wednesdays at 5:15 p.m. in the choir room.

Being a part of a musical group builds community. We are Christian music makers together! Participating in a group and creating something together has been found to improve overall wellbeing. It's easy-don't worry if you have never played an instrument. You DO NOT have to be able to read music to play in our group!

MUSIKGARTEN CLASSES are being formed now for Toddlers (ages 18mo-3yrs) and preschoolers (ages 3-5 years)

"God's Children Sing" Musikgarten classes are being taught on Monday nights as part of Celebrate Recovery!!

Gail Waller is the teacher.
