

INVITATION to the Toronto and York Region Métis Council's ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Dear Toronto and York Region Métis Citizen:

The Toronto and York Region Métis Council (TYRMC) is pleased to invite you to its 3rd Annual General Meeting.

DATE: Saturday June 4, 2016

LOCATION: Anishnawbe Health Toronto, 179 Gerrard Street East, Toronto, ON

TIME: 12:30PM to 5:00 PM

Business Meeting: 10:30AM to 11:30AM Open to the community

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Lynn Lavallée, Associate Professor and Associate Director of School of Social Work, Ryerson University

We are excited to invite all Métis citizens in Toronto and York Region to join us for an afternoon of discussion and socializing. The TYRMC will provide an update on our activities and strategic plan moving forward, as well as receive some direction from our community. We're interested in your input and your support so that together we can build a stronger Métis presence in Toronto and York Region.

The theme of this year's AGM is Métis health and well-being. Our keynote speaker, Dr. Lynn Lavallée, will speak about Métis identity and health. Staff from the Métis Nation of Ontario (MNO) will also be in attendance to share information about the programs and services available to Métis individuals. There will also be door prizes, information booths and vendors, as well as fiddling and jigging!

Lunch will be provided. Come out and join us for an informative afternoon to see what we have planned for the future and how to get involved!

Please R.S.V.P. by Saturday May 21st, 2016 by email at council@tyrnc.org. Please bring your citizenship card so that you can vote during the business meeting. Please also note that both citizens and non-citizens are welcome at our AGM.

If you are unable to attend but would like to receive future updates and email correspondence about TYRMC activities, send an email noting this to council@tyrnc.org and we will be happy to add you to our email list.

We greatly look forward to seeing you in June!
