November 17th – Luncheon Meeting

Todd Spitzer

Orange County District Attorney Todd Spitzer has a long standing reputation as an advocate for victims' rights. He chaired the ground-breaking campaign for Proposition 9, Marsy's Law, the nation's most comprehensive Victim's Bill of Rights, and served as State Co-Chair for Proposition 83, the nation's toughest sex offender punishment and control law as well as Proposition 69, which requires the collection of DNA samples from all felons. DA Spitzer also joint-authored Megan's Law on the Internet, the landmark legislation requiring the release of public information related to sex offenders and as a former deputy and assistant district attorney he handled complex criminal matters while managing line prosecutors.

Todd Spitzer has dedicated his life to keeping families safe and was inspired to dedicate his career to public service as an Orange County Supervisor, former California State Assembly Member, and now as the Orange County District Attorney.

Todd Spitzer has dedicated his life to keeping families safe and was inspired to dedicate his career to public service as an Orange County Supervisor, former California State Assembly Member, and now as the Orange County District Attorney. A champion for public safety, District Attorney Spitzer is recognized as an expert on security issues, whose reputation as an advocate for victims' rights is respected nationally. Spitzer chaired the ground-breaking campaign for Proposition 9, Marsy's Law, the nation's most comprehensive Victim's Bill of Rights, and served as State Co-Chair for Proposition 83, the nation's toughest sex offender punishment and control law as well as Proposition 69, which requires the collection of DNA samples from all felons.

Fighting to protect our community, he joint-authored Megan's Law on the Internet, the landmark legislation requiring the release of public information related to sex offenders and as a former deputy and assistant district attorney he handled complex criminal matters while managing line prosecutors.

As Third District Supervisor, he secured Orange County's first year-round, supportive housing shelter for the homeless, established an Ethics Commission, gained passage of pension reform measures, and strengthened public safety oversight by expanding the Office of Independent Review.

Spitzer earned his Bachelor's degree from UCLA (1982), a Master's degree in Public Policy from UC Berkeley (1989), and a Law Degree from UC Hastings School of Law (1989). While at Hastings, Spitzer was awarded the George Moscone Fellowship, for the law student dedicating his career to public service.

Spitzer is a former high school teacher and reserve police officer assigned to DUI enforcement and patrol duties. He is a doting father of a son and daughter and a dedicated husband to Judge Jamie Spitzer, Presiding Judge of the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board.

NOTABLE QUOTES FROM AMERICAN PATRIOTS

"I predict future happiness for Americans, if they can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of taking care of them." ~ Thomas Jefferson

THE NEW PILGRIMS

by Alice Elwell

Webster describes 'Pilgrim' as a wanderer or seeker in a new land. In our American vernacular we refer to Pilgrim as one of the original Puritan settlers in 1620. These Pilgrims would endure all manner of hardship to reach and live in a new land where they could enjoy a freedom to live and worship as they pleased. Now, four hundred years later we are faced with unbelievable corruption and greed in the leaders of our "More Perfect Union." Many of us are seeking to restore the principles outlined by the Patriots in our Constitution. We are seeking to escape the tyrannical leadership that wants to control our every action.

Amid all the confusion, however, there is hope. There is hope in all of us who are stepping up and saying, "No More!" There is hope in the parents who are challenging a Marxist ideology in our schools. There is still hope that honorable men and women will step us to serve us as elected officials. We are the new Pilgrims seeking a brighter future for ourselves and our children. When Abraham Lincoln in his Gettysburg address said in part that, "We are now engaged in a Great Civil War testing whether this nation or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure," it seems prophetic. We, like the Pilgrims before us, will have to display integrity and fortitude as we engage in a war against our culture and our Nation under God. Fight on Good Pilgrim and have a Happy Thanksgiving!

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

A Thanksgiving Thought from Richard B. Douglass:

"The modern American seldom pauses to give thanks for the simple blessings of life. One reason is that we are used to having so much. We simply assume that we will have all the good things of life. Another reason is that it hurts our pride to be grateful.

We do not want to admit that God is the Provider of all good things. We are simply His stewards. Being thankful requires humility and faith in God. When we have these we can be grateful."

CARING FOR AMERICA

By Cynthia Martinez and Roseann Gillett

On behalf of Caring for America we would like to thank you for supporting our Thanksgiving Event at Camp Pendleton. We are now working on two Christmas Projects for our troops overseas with care packages. We are also supporting several families with Christmas parties that include toys and gifts. It is very tough on our military and their families during the Holidays. When our deployed service members receive pictures of their families enjoying the gifts we have given them, they are grateful to see their loved ones supported in their absence.

Help us send a message of gratitude to the men and women who serve by giving a donation of any amount. Those donations will help to provide Christmas stockings for our service members overseas and also to provide Christmas parties for their families. You can make your check payable to:

Words of Comfort, Hope and Promise
Mail to: 63 Via Pico Plaza #418
San Clemente, CA 92672

Of course you can bring your check to the meeting or donate online to:

CALIFORNIA REGULATIONS

KILL EFFICIENCY

By Marilyn Parker

California is the laughingstock of the nation on so many fronts. However, the people who live in California are not totally responsible for the pile up and backlog of products brought into the state at the Ports of Long Beach and Los Angeles. Well, maybe partially. It matters who you vote for! How do you get products off the ships and into the stores for people to buy? Hmm, this has been going on for a hundred years or more, right? Let us start with getting the cargo off the ships. The government owned and unionized Port of LA regularly strolls along at 60%-70% of capacity, closed evenings, and Sundays. The dock workers (not to single out the name of the Union) have very restrictive work rules and have fought automation of the process there for years to protect high wage earners in the Union. Inefficiency and lack of serious work hours needed to be addressed months ago, not just three weeks ago. The Port of Long Beach has been working a 24/7 schedule for a long time, but in reality, they are working only one of six terminals only on Monday to Thursday. What?? Can you believe anything you hear on the news? Next step is getting the products on trucks and out to the warehouses and distribution centers. What could possibly go wrong here? California environmental emissions and labor regulations on truckers have stifled the process.

The law says that all trucks entering a Union run facility must be newer than 2011 with specific emission equipment, disqualifying thousands of older trucks whose owners cannot afford to constantly upgrade their fleet. Secondly, AB 5 banning non-union owner operated trucks from entering the Ports has massively limited the flow of goods. Adding one more barrier to the process is the excessive unemployment benefits authorized by the Democrat controlled government, resulting in a true worker shortage. So, when you have a conversation with people who still don't have a clue, enlighten them that who you vote for does matter. Please.

LATE NEWS FROM "MOMS ON THE GROUND"

By Alice Elwell

Students and Teachers for Public and Private school are being asked to sit out Monday, November 15th. When the absence is communicated to the school you are to say it is because of the Vaccine Mandate.

Since all government funds are tied to attendance, that should be a huge loss of income to the School Districts. The concern, of course, is that in the future they may tie funding to something other than attendance. For the time being, this is an enormous tool in the toolbox.
