

EL SANTUARIO DE LOS POBLADORES DEDICATED TO THE MYSTERIES OF THE ROSARY

This is a picture of the completed mission statue of St. Augustine. The life-size bronze depiction has temporarily been placed at the church in Antonito and will eventually be placed at the Santuario along with six additional mission statues. The process for the next mission statue will begin as entire donations are complete for each figure. We have volunteers actively seeking contributions for the remaining missions of Ortiz, San Rafael, Las Mesitas, San Miguel, and San Antonio. In addition to the mission statues sur-

[Jesus] took his seat... at the right hand of God" is a Hebraism which means: "Jesus shares power with God in heaven" where he prays for us. Knowing this gives us hope in our often confused human condition

The story of Our Lady of Guadalupe By Francesca Merlo

December 12th is the Feast Day of Our Lady of Guadalupe. We take a look at the story behind the indigenous peasant who came across the Patron of the Americas, and how he fought for her message to be heard. The Virgin of Guadalupe, like the shroud of Turin, appears on a piece of fabric. Both are sacred objects, hundreds of years old, and both depict an image said to be miraculous. The Virgin of Guadalupe was declared Queen of Mexico and is Patron of the Americas.

FIRST APPARITION: Our Lady of Guadalupe first introduced herself as the Mother of God and the mother of all humanity when she appeared on the hill of Tepeyac in Mexico in 1531. An indigenous peasant, Juan Diego, saw a glowing figure on the hill. After she had identified herself to him, Our Lady asked that Juan build her a shrine in that same spot, in order for her to show and share her love and compassion with all those who believe. Afterwards, Juan Diego visited Juan de Zumárraga, who was Archbishop of what is now Mexico City. Zumárraga dismissed him in disbelief and asked that the future Saint provide proof of his story and proof of the Lady's identity. Juan Diego returned to the hill and encountered Our Lady again. The Virgin told him to climb to the top of the hill and pick some flowers to present to the Archbishop.

WINTER BLOOM: Although it was winter and nothing should have been in bloom, Juan Diego found an abundance of flowers of a type he had never seen before. The Virgin bundled the flowers into Juan's cloak, known as a tilma. When Juan Diego presented the tilma of exotic flowers to Zumárraga, the flowers fell out and he recognized them as Castilian roses, which are not found in Mexico. What was even more significant, however, was that the tilma had been miraculously imprinted with a colorful image of the Virgin herself.

TILMA: This actual tilma, preserved since that date and showing the familiar image of the Virgin Mary with her head bowed and hands together in prayer, represents the Virgin of Guadalupe. It remains perhaps the most sacred object in all of Mexico. The story is best known from a manuscript written in the Aztec's native language Nahuatl by the scholar Antonio Veleriano. It was written sometime after 1556. Over 20 million people visit the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe each year, now situated on the very same hill on which she appeared. In 1990, Pope Saint John Paul II visited Mexico and beatified Juan Diego. 10 years later, in the year 2000, he was declared a Saint.

This parish has a proud and rich history. People have always felt at home here. Here is where our people made history-traveling here, settling here and enduring many sacrifices to make possible what we have today, the establishment of the oldest church in Colorado. This meditation shrine which we have embarked upon is being constructed adjacent to Our Lady of Guadalupe Church in Conejos, further honoring our Blessed Mother, the center of our Hispanic culture, a mother most blessed and respected.
