Reference Guide to Online AA Resources for Groups and Beginners

Virtual Literature Rack

At a meeting we can usually find pamphlets that are free and we can recommend some pieces to a newcomer that will help them to learn a little more about AA. The links below will take you to the pamphlets on the Alcoholics Anonymous website.

This Is A.A. pamphlet link

Introductory pamphlet describing the kind of people A.A.s are and what A.A.s have learned about alcoholism. For anyone who thinks he or she may have a problem with alcohol.

Is A.A. for You? pamphlet link

Symptoms of alcoholism are summed up in 12 questions most A.A.s had to answer to identify themselves as alcoholics.

Is A.A. for Me? pamphlet link

Based on the 12 questions in "Is A.A. for You?," this 32-page pamphlet is an illustrated, easy-to-read version.

Do You Think You're Different?

Speaks to newcomers who may wonder how A.A. can work for someone "different"—black or Jewish, teenager or nearing 80, plus nine other people who tell how the A.A. program has worked for them.

A Newcomer Asks pamphlet link

Gives straightforward, brief answers on 15 points that once puzzled many of us.

Questions and Answers on Sponsorship pamphlet link

Uses shared A.A. experience to answer 34 questions likely to be asked by persons seeking sponsors, persons wanting to be sponsors, and groups planning sponsorship activity.

Frequently Asked Questions About A.A. pamphlet link

Formerly called 44 Questions. Answers the questions most frequently asked about A.A. by alcoholics seeking help, as well as by their families and friends.

Problems Other Than Alcohol pamphlet link

Bill's thoughts on the status of drug addicts within A.A. are as timely as when they appeared in a 1958 Grapevine.

There is a complete list of all pamphlets on the website. For more information click here and scroll down to the Pamphlets/Flyers section.

Online Videos and Audios

Sound and visual media help to carry the message of recovery of Alcoholics Anonymous and to inform the public and professionals about A.A. Public Service Announcements (PSAs) are available in both video and audio formats (for television and radio broadcast), as well as other materials specifically for young people and for professionals working with alcoholics.

Self Support Card

SELF-SUPPORT

The Seventh Tradition states that Acotholics Anonymous is self-supporting through our own contributions. The contributions help to cover the group's expenses. But the Seventh Tradition is more than simply paying for next and other group expenses. It is both a privilege and a responsibility of individual groups and members to ensure that our organization, at every level, remains forever self-supporting and their of suiside influences that might divert us from our primary purpose.

The monetary amount of each contribution is secondary to the spiritual connection that joins us in unity with A.A. groups around the work.
