

Conversation starters to build reading skills and comprehension!

These are just some questions you can ask your child to start a discussion. Feel free to pick one question following the book reading. This should be a pleasurable time where you both share thoughts and observations about the book. Feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns :o)

Does this book make you think of anything from your life? (Connect text to self.)

Does this book remind you of another book? How are they the same or different? (Connect text to text.)

Was this story fiction (fake) or non-fiction (real)?

Who were the characters?

Which character did you like the best and why?

Where is the setting? (Where does this story take place?)

What was the problem in the story? How did the characters solve the problem (solution)?

Did you like the ending of the story? Why? How did it make you feel?

Did you learn something from this book? What?

Go back and find some sight words that you know.