

Program Advertising

Want to show your support for the arts while bringing exposure to your business? Or perhaps support a cast member? Why not purchase an ad in the program of the Northeast Florida Conservatory's first-ever play, Three's a Family? This beautiful keepsake program is a perfect way for audience members to view your business or support.

Three's a Family is a 1944 comedy, set in a small apartment occupied by Sam and Frances Whittaker and her annoying sister Irma. When Sam and Frances' daughter Kitty and her newborn baby show up, it gets even more crowded. Next comes their son and his expectant wife, who must have their baby at the apartment because the hospitals are full. Throw in a fossil of a doctor for the delivery and you have the setting for chaos and a lot of laughs.
