

LARGE FLOWERHEADS BIO

Tribute to the Groovy '60s

BRITISH INVASION TO WOODSTOCK

The Large Flowerheads bring to life the sights & sounds of the groovy '60s. Their repertoire includes numbers from The Beatles, Rolling Stones, Sonny & Cher, Dusty Springfield, Mamas & the Papas, The Monkees & so many more!

"They perform these timeless classics with a sense of perfection rarely heard in a cover band." Michael McKenna, Music Reviewer

The Large Flowerheads have opened for Peter Noone & Herman's Hermits, The 5th Dimension, The Guess Who, & The Vogues. At Wildwood's Sensational '60s Weekend, they energized the crowd for The Grass Roots, Gary Puckett & the Union Gap, & Paul Revere & The Raiders.

Notable stages include Musikfest Cafe, Penn's Peak, Sellersville Theater, Hollywood Casino, Sands Casino, Bayonne Summer Concert Series, Wildwood Seafood Festival & TD Bank Amphitheater. They also perform at regional fairs, festivals & summer concert series, including Musikfest.

All members of the band sing & are multi-instrumentalists.

Named after a carton of artificial flowers spotted in a warehouse rehearsal space in Lehigh Valley PA, The Large Flowerheads consists of Maureen "Moe" Jerant on drums & guitar, Greg Geist on rhythm guitar and drums, Billy Trexler on lead guitar & electric sitar, Dave Follweiler on keyboards, and Colleen Zajacik on bass & percussion.

PRESS PHOTOS

"It is IMPOSSIBLE not to have a blast at their shows. Everything, from the tune selections, to the arrangements, to the overall vibe is just spot-on designed for fun!"

— Tom Ford, Fan