

Perah V. Baker

Specialized Tutoring Services In-Home Educational and Behavioral Tutoring

As a veteran teacher with 29 years of special education experience, I have begun a new venture in In-Home Educational and Behavioral Support with students ages 10 through 26; transition-age young adults.

4 PRIMARY GOALS

School Success and Communication Supports to Parents

Positive Self Awareness and Routines

Home Harmony and Social Skill Development with Peers

Employability Skills meets Community Success

Individualized Services Created and Designed for Emotionally Impaired and Asperger Youth Ages 10 Through 26: Transition Aged Young Adults

Parent Series

Adult Daily Living Skills:

Teaching budgeting to your child
Incorporating Employability skills from school to home
Obstacles when teaching healthy hygiene at home
Handling authority in school, work, community

Students in Alternative Settings:

Suspension Expulsion- what's next
Incorporating behavioral support at home using a point system
Oppositional Students meeting success at school
Homebound Law

School Success:

Incorporating Study Skill routines at home
Social Skill redirection at home and visual/verbal practice
Managing feedback at school

Transition to Post High School Vision and Goals:

Post High School transition for sp ed students- what does this mean
Local Certification Programs available in Wayne County
Agency Supports for Transition in State of Michigan
Creating success in Community College
Using local community programs to help students learn Adult Skills
Using your network to find volunteer vocational experiences for your children

IEP related Topics:

Accommodations and supports in IEP- what do they mean
Transition Information in an IEP
Advocating for your child's needs at an IEP
What is included in a Present Level Statement in an IEP
What are Coordinated Sets of Activities in an IEP Transition Plan
Course of Study: Michigan Merit Diploma and Certificate of Completion

Communication • Aspergers • Behavioral Strategies • IEP Compliance • Advocacy • Positive Behavioral Support

Study Skills • Vocational/Social Skills • Daily Living Skills • Suspensions • Online Alternative Education • Home School

Certifications:
Secondary Emotional Impairment
Inter/Intrapersonal Communication
Master in the Art of Teaching
Sp Ed Leadership and Administration in Process

Phone: 248.885.3948
Email: perahbaker@gmail.com