

Meredith Ruden

Meredith started at MYEP having never done anything like this and has spent a great deal of time and effort to learn about the job and individuals. Meredith is always improving herself and continually seeks to learn more! She goes out of her way to help her coworkers when she can. She meets and exceeds her supervisor's expectations and definitely has the heart to succeed in this line of work and make a difference in the quality of life of our individuals.