

Summary of Club Guidelines for Coaches, Team Managers, Parents and Players

It is the goal of Real World Futbol Club provide coaches and talented players an opportunity to participate in travel soccer at low cost without the big club policies. In order protect RWFC's reputation, it is the club policy that teams abide by the following guidelines.

Uniforms

- Each travel team is responsible for the purchase of their team uniforms.
- Teams must have two different color uniforms to avoid uniform conflicts.
- Teams will be provided a club patch to be placed on the uniforms.

General Guidelines for Players

- Players will refrain from using profanity.
- Players will not engage in disparaging dialogue with referees, teammates, coaches, opponents or spectators.
- Players will not, under any circumstances, participate in physical violence or threats of physical violence before, during or after any game or practice.
- Players are prohibited from use of alcohol or illegal drugs while on the active roster of any RWFC team.
- Players will obey the laws of the game and play within the spirit of the laws.

Parent and Spectators

- Parents agree to support their club and their team in requiring players to abide by the Players Code of Conduct.
- Parents will not use or possess alcohol, illegal drugs or weapons while attending any RWFC game.
- Parents will not under any circumstances yell at their child or any other child in an abusive verbal way. RWFC will not tolerate this type of behavior by parents or spectators. Violators may be asked to leave the venue and may be prohibited from attending home games.
- Verbal or physical abuse of any coach or referee will not be tolerated and violators may be sanctioned by VYSA and the RWFC.
- The use of obscenities by spectators is strictly prohibited. The referee shall instruct any spectator guilty of using obscenity to leave the venue.
- Team parents are collectively responsible for the behavior of all of their team's spectators in accordance with the code outlined above.
- Both teams are required to take the same side of the field. The "home" team is responsible for choosing the side of the field the teams will occupy. Members of each team will remain on opposite sides of the centerline. Team officials and players are to remain between the centerline and the 18-yard line. All are to be at least 3 feet behind the touchline.
- Spectator Area--All spectators are to take the side of the field opposite the teams. Spectators should remain at least 3 feet behind the touchline. If, during the match, the spectators' behavior is out of line then the referee will ask the coaches to speak to the spectators. If the behavior continues, it is within the discretion of the referee to ask the offending spectator(s) to leave the venue. The referee shall abandon the match if the spectators become unruly and out of control.
- RWFC reserves the right to deny future club participation to a team is a disruptive influence or behaves in such a way that can damage or negatively impact the image of the club.
- Every coach, player and parent must behave according to VYSA, league and tournament rules.
