

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Johnny Holm

Inducted in 1995

Johnny Holm is an entertainer who provides more fun and good times than Santa Claus. People have dubbed him “the magic man” or Pied Piper of the Midwest” because of his uncanny ability to direct crowd into doing things they thought they would never do and enjoy. He conducts mass sing-a-longs, dancelines, and turns average plumbers, programmers, students or executives tiny stars for a night. Truly a musical and entertaining phenomenon, Johnny Holm is a must to experience. Together with a tremendous five-piece band, Holm smiles and truly loves his job. The Johnny Holm Band has recorded five albums and eleven singles, two of which have charted nationally. The band has played from Florida to Colorado, from Canada to Texas and continues to breed his own records for drawing crowds in the five-state Midwest area. Holm’s repertoire is diverse as his show. Rock and Roll, Country Rock, even show tunes and maybe a polka or two. The Johnny Holm Band has a large grass roots following that amazes industry observers because of its size and loyalty.
