Sunday Meditation

In the Bible prayer sometimes sounds like arguing and pleading one's case before God, a kind of holy reasoning before God, giving reasons He should answer their prayers. For instance Moses argued that Jehovah would look bad to the Egyptians if He killed the recently delivered Israelites. Abraham made the case that it wouldn't be just to destroy righteous Sodomites with the unrighteous. "Far be it from you. Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right" (Gen. 18:26)? In neither case was God displeased; rather He responded to their arguments as any reasonable person would. Can we learn anything in this for our praying? I think so. We'd be foolish to argue with God in a negative, complaining manner. But to present good reasons for Him to answer us based on His nature, His promises, and on our relationship to Him is quite reasonable and acceptable to Him. All for Jesus, Richard

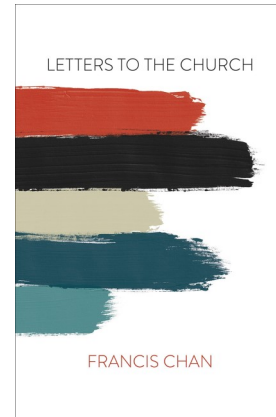

Anchor Youth Join us Friday, Oct. 12th in the evening for dinner & Judgement Journey!

This event will walk you through Revelations and truly make an impression! Bring your friends! I MUST have an RSVP by today. The tickets are pre-purchase only and you will not have a ticket if you don't rsvp. This event is for mature 6-12th graders. If you have questions see Adrian or Mark.

There was a great response to the MAGI box collection this year! There has been 125 boxes delivered to Healing Hands. Our fun filled boxes are taken to children in Honduras. Thank you for such a wonderful response.

The God Chasers in classroom #6 will be starting a new class beginning Oct. 14th. We will be using Francis Chan's new book, "Letters to the church," as our outline. Danny Swafford will be the teacher.

A worship time for ages 3-5 during the message time of adult worship. The kids will learn Biblical lessons each week & do a craft. The Kingdom Kids room is located in the foyer, to the left, as you exit the doors. The green trees on the wall make it easy to find. The children will re-join us after the service during the announcements.
