Information for New Players

Where should I stay?

Hotel rooms mention IOMA STATE TOURNAMENT

Ramada Inn (319)233-7560

<https://www.reservations-page.com/C00678/H10933/be.ashx?pc=IOMAPOOL>

When should I arrive?

Plan to arrive so you have time to check into your hotel, get comfortable, look around and familiarize yourself with the site, find your start times, and be at your table when your match is scheduled to play. This usually means arriving the night before your division is scheduled to start.

Do I need to check-in?

No, go to: <https://compusport.us/CS/Portal/Tournament/> to find start time and table assignment. This may either be done on your smart phone or on one of the kiosks in the convention center lobby.

Where and when do I play?

It is your responsibility to know when and where you play. Matches will not be announced.

Input your name in one of the available computer monitors at the control desk. You will be able to navigate to the events you are registered for, and will be able to see the bracket you are assigned to. Find the start time and table number of your match.

Approximately 15 minutes before your match is scheduled to play, your match sheet will be at the main control desk. Verify that the match sheet list your name. Then mark an "X" on the sheet and head over to your designated table. The second person or team will take the sheet to the table with them.

If a match is still in progress on that table, please wait at the table until that match is completed. If the match is not close to being finished, report to the tournament director and ask to be reassigned.

The Tournament brackets can be accessed via your smart phone, ipad or computer at <https://compusport.us/CS/Portal/Tournament/>

After the match is done?

After you completed your match, both players or both team captains are to sign the match sheet. The winner will return to the control desk and will scan the barcode of the winner using the barcode reader at the front of the station. This will record the match results into the computer system. You must complete this step or you will not get credit for winning your match. No matches will be replayed.

Check at one of the computer monitors for the start time/table number of your next match.

General Rules

- Tournament Rules The rules governing play are detailed in the current VNEA Rule Book.
- Referees are the authority in all matters relating to the rules. You can however, dispute a ruling by a floor referee and the matter will be taken up with the head referee who will be the final authority.
- Protests If for any reason, a team captain feels that the opposing team has fielded an ineligible player, or may be otherwise ineligible to compete, the team captain only may file a written protest with the tournament committee. A $100 deposit is required. The protest will then be reviewed and a determination made. If the protesting team prevails, the $100 deposit will be refunded and action will be taken as deemed appropriate by the tournament committee, whose decision is final.
- This same rule also applies to all single division players.
- There are other situations that can be protested - check with a referee if a situation occurs that you feel may warrant a protest.
- Match start times We will make every effort to get all matches under way at the appointed times. Your timeliness in reporting for all matches will help make this job easier. Please be considerate of your fellow players.
- When playing in a singles event you will be allowed a five minute grace period for arrival at your match. If your opponent has not arrived at the table five minutes after the appointed time for the match to begin, take your match sheet to the main control desk. The Tournament Director will announce the start of the grace period and the staff will announce your opponent's name. At the expiration of the announced time you will win the match by forfeit. The Tournament Director's clock ONLY will be used and is official for this purpose and the decision of the Tournament Director will be final.
- When playing in a team event, only one team member need be present to start the match. The same grace period rules will apply as in the singles events, if no member of the opposing team is present.
- Shot Clock We will observe a "reasonable" shot time frame. If you feel that a player is intentionally taking too much time on or between shots you should notify a referee. The referee will then generally issue a warning to BOTH parties (single players or teams) that a second complaint will result in the ENTIRE match being placed on a shot clock. This will hold each shot to a 45 second time limit. A referee or designee will be placed at the match. Each shot will be timed. "Time" will be announced after 35 seconds and "Foul" be announced after 45 seconds. Ball in hand or other appropriate penalty will then be applied towards the offending player. Any abuse of a referee under this provision by either player or team will be handled as "Unsportsmanlike conduct" and the referee or other Tournament official will take the appropriate action under the rules pertaining to Administrative discretion.
