

Corporate Bios

Chris Harrison, Director, Client Portfolio Management

Symphony Asset Management recruited Mr. Harrison to bring his extraordinary depth of product expertise and industry intelligence to bear as the company grows into a leading boutique firm. Working side-by-side with the investment team and acting as the principal product expert, Mr. Harrison is the client liaison, charged with articulating the portfolio strategy. In addition to his client responsibilities, he explores and analyzes product trends and market niches, assessing Symphony's current products and potential avenues for evolution to enhance Symphony's leadership in the credit space.

Prior to joining Symphony in 2011, Mr. Harrison was an executive director at Mitsubishi Securities where he oversaw the expansion of the firm's high yield and loan trading businesses. Throughout his extensive career in high yield and leveraged finance, he has held various senior-level positions at Drexel Burnham Lambert, Bankers Trust, Bank of New York, and Raymond James and Associates, among other firms.

During his 29-year career on Wall Street in leveraged finance and trading, Chris Harrison has structured, traded or sold nearly 500 transactions valued at more than $250 billion. During his tenure at Drexel Burnham Lambert, Mr. Harrison championed high yield deals, bringing many to market. Deepening his expertise in credit, Mr. Harrison also structured collateralized bond and loan obligations (CBO's and CLO's) since the origins of those financial instruments in the mid-1980's.

Mr. Harrison received his BA degree in business economics from the University of California, Los Angeles, and is headquartered in Symphony's New York City office.

Cheryl B. King, Head of US Institutional Marketing

Cheryl King, Head of US Institutional Marketing, directs Symphony Asset Management's institutional business development initiative and oversees marketing and client services for the firm's current institutional clients. Throughout her nearly 20 year career at top-tier investment firms, Ms. King has built an exceptional track record, raising more than $5 billion in assets from the most prestigious institutional investors throughout the globe within the public pension, foundation and endowments, hospital systems and corporate pension arenas.

Prior to joining Symphony in 2011, Ms. King served as a Managing Director for Symphony Financial Partners, a Tokyo-based alternative investments firm unrelated to the current one. During her tenure, she substantially increased the Japanese and Asia hybrid hedge/PE fund assets and introduced alternative investment solutions throughout North America, the UK, Europe and Asia to a broad range of investors. As a managing director at Victory Capital Management for five years, Ms. King established and grew the firm's San Francisco office for its new foundation/endowment and healthcare business, tripling those assets for the firm. Her highly successful career has included acting as the Director of the Foundation, Endowment and Healthcare practice as Dresdner RCM Global Investors and senior-level positions with Fidelity Investments, Bank of America and First Interstate Bank.

Ms. King is a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of Investment Management Sales Executives and sits on the Advisory Board of Institutional Investments. A dynamic speaker, she has presented at numerous high profile industry conferences, most notably Global ARC, an annual congress for the pension, endowment and hedge fund communities.

She received her BA in psychology from the University of California, Santa Barbara and resides in San Francisco.