

Power Up all Your Gear at Once

All those wires from all those gadgets charging at once - what a mess! The Powramid C Power Center features six power outlets arranged around the body of the surge protector, making it easy to accommodate bulky power bricks without obstructing neighboring outlets. It's also equipped with two USB ports to support various USB-enabled devices, including the iPhone, Google Pixel, Samsung smartphones and Kindle tablets. The USB Type C and A ports provide a total of 3.4A safe charging.

The Powramid features X3 MOV (Metal Oxide Varistor) technology, providing the safest surge protection by detecting surge conditions and directing excess energy away from equipment through the electrical grounding system. In addition, it also features colored indicators to alert the user if the device is protected or not.

The Powramid C Power Center is equipped with up to 40 dB filtration power, isolating the users' equipment from power generated noise for a superior picture and sound when used with an audio or video device. The rubber feet protect furniture from scratching. For more information, visit accellww.com. The Powramid C Power Center costs $49.99 and is available at Accellww.com and Amazon.com.

Became a Laird, Lady or Lord of Glencoe

Highland Titles has developed a creative approach to land conservation by selling small plots of land to help fund the rescuing of woodlands, tree planting, maintenance and acquisition of land at risk of development – ensuring it cannot be purchased or developed.

Bench overlooking reserve

By offering the unique and eco-friendly opportunity to purchase souvenir plots on its estate in Glencoe Wood, Scotland, Highland Titles has helped protect and restore the environment while granting the legal use of the Scottish title of Laird, Lord or Lady. Plot sizes range from one square foot to 1,000 square feet and are available for purchase starting at $43.

When buying a one square foot plot, you'll receive:

- ◆ The title of Laird, Lord or Lady of Glencoe Wood
- ◆ A legal title deed for your land ownership, on velum parchment.
- ◆ Master Title Deed to change your title on bank accounts, driving license and other ID
- ◆ A map of Glencoe Wood, directions and instructions on how to visit/find your personal plot.
- ◆ Information and pictures of the area, Glencoe Wood and our conservation project.
- ◆ A bumper sticker for you to proudly display your new status (Laird, Lord or Lady)

All-natural Deodorant that actually works

After searching years to find an all-natural deodorant that actually worked Dr. Jessica Benningfield decided to make her own and EKC Deodorant was born.

EKC Deodorant is different - first, it's organic, all natural and made in the USA. The deodorant contains no toxic chemicals, aluminum, glycols, parabens, sulfates, or zinc salts.

And, they donate a tube to women and girls in need for every tube sold. So far they've donated to numerous organizations such as Sherry Strong and Girls on the Run.

You can have EKC delivered on a monthly basis or just purchase separately to try it out and see the difference for yourself. A three-pack of Evelyn Kay Deodorant – no subscription required - costs $29.95.

An all natural women's deodorant that actually works. No Toxic Chemicals.

Find them on Amazon or at <https://www.ekcdeodorant.com>.

Father's day Gift Idea: Bar-to-go

For the dad on the go, the Hex X Tillit Bartender Backpack makes a great gift. The backpack was developed to carry every tool of the trade imaginable from stirrers, strainers and knives to bottles, spoons and books. There are two parts, the main outer bag and an internal kit bag which can be carried separately over the shoulder.

The main bag is a backpack, or when the straps are tucked away, it can be held like a briefcase. It can hold a cutting board, shakers, tins, glassware, bottles, iPad, laptop, clothes, books, shoes and more. The exterior is a coated canvas making it water and dirt resistant.

The interior is insulated, padded and contains adjustable flaps for simple customized packing configuration while keeping glass and tins safe. The internal essentials kit bag nestles inside the main backpack but pops out as a stand-alone case. It's designed to hold shakers, strainers and tools in a compact case you can stash behind the bar.

Features: Water-resistant coated canvas exterior; Insulated, padded interior; Tuck-away shoulder straps; Can be carried as a backpack or briefcase; Bartending accessories not included

The price for the Hex X Tilit Bartender Backpack is $195 and is available at hexbrand.com.
