About the County

Helena is the capital city of Montana, known as the "Queen City." Helena is also the county seat for Lewis and Clark County. As of the 2010 United States census, the county population is 63,395. Helena, Montana is home to 75 miles of famous mountain bike trails and was named Rand McNally and Geocaching.com's "Best of the Road" and "Best Geocaching". The Helena area includes the Continental Divide of the Rocky Mountains, Mount Helena City Park, Spring Meadow Lake State Park, Lake Helena, Great Divide Ski Area, Gates of the Mountains, the Missouri River, Canyon Ferry Lake, Holter Lake, Hauser Lake, The Helena National Forest, Four golf courses, Exploration Works and much more.

Helena is located between Yellowstone National Park and Glacier National Park. Helena's history is rich in gold rush stories and vigilantes. Take a ride on the Last Chance Tour train and discover Downtown Helena and the Mansion District's rich history. The State Capital Building in Helena is home to the State's Government and you can even catch the Governor in his office from time to time. Helena has an old-fashioned soda fountain, candy shop and Montana made goodies on every corner.
