New Business: Gog. Co 4H presentation and request- The 4H organization is requesting the use of the gym for an overnight event-Rock-a-thon. The students will "rock" in rocking chairs to fundraiser. The 4H officials will be screening the adult supervisors. 4H has a rider of Ins. for this event also. A motion was made by Segalin supported by Saari to donate the time and space for this event. Motion carried.

Michigan Law dictates the Township have a Construction Board of appeals. It should include 3-7 members, Boys suggested 5 members. It will be a 2 year term. The law also suggests the board be made up of members with some construction background. A motion was made by Lyons supported by Graser to place an ad seeking individuals for this board.

The secretary of the Township would like her name removed from the Township Credit Card. A motion was made by Brunello supported by Segalin to allow the Supervisor, Treasurer, and Clerk to all possess a credit card, in their individual names with the Supervisor at a $1,500 limit, Clerk at $1,000 limit and Treasurer at $1,000 limit. Motion carried on a roll call vote.

Citizens have been asking if more links to areas in the township can be put on our website. It was recommended to check with MTA and other municipalities to see what their policy is on this subject. A motion was made by Boyd supported by Brunello. Motion carried.

Reports:

Supervisor: The furnaces in the gym may need replacing in the near future. They are both over 20 yrs. old. We may need to get bids for two, or one large one, or to be moved to another location in the gym area.

There are NO road restrictions on in the township at this time due to the warm temperatures. The City of Ironwood will be replacing approx. 6000 ft. of water lines in the Township.
