

a learning habitat and consulting firm

About Us

At Hatch, we are a heart-centered group of professionals committed to guiding clients in the development of pathways to working, learning & living wisely. Our goal is for each student, person, group, or entity entrusted to our care and direction to reach full potential in all areas of development. We offer a diverse range of research-based programs and services to tailor our mission to all we have the opportunity and honor to serve.

Why Hatch?

Our service signature is a wrap-around approach. We strive to assure our clients receive every service they need and stakeholders collaborate. To carry out this mission, hatch utilizes contracted providers that include experienced professional educators, program specialists and independently certified/licensed practitioners including BCBA's focused on creating conditions for success and growing wise.

Meet the Founder and Director

Loueva Hatfield, M.Ed. holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Duke University as well as a master's degree in educational supervision and administration from the University of Houston-Victoria. She is a Texas certified Special Education teacher as well as a certified principal and True Colors facilitator.

Mrs. Hatfield's career spans the last twenty years and includes work in both public and private educational arenas. She has been a teacher, Special Education Director, Special Programs Director as well as Executive Director of a residential treatment center for children with emotional, behavioral, self-help, sensory-motor integration and cognitive challenges including those on the Autism/PDD spectrum.

Mrs. Hatfield is well versed and experienced in working with children and adults with learning differences as well as in training and supervising adults in their efforts to provide quality, researched-based programs in an effective and efficient manner. Mrs. Hatfield maintains a working knowledge of federal as well as state laws and initiatives related to the provision of care, treatment and services to special needs children and their families. She also enjoys her work as a life coach, motivational speaker and licensed True Colors facilitator who thrives on helping others reach their full potential as individuals and members of collaborating teams, marriages and families.

To carry out its mission, Hatch's contracted providers include experienced professional educators, program specialists and independently certified/licensed practitioners including BCBA's focused on creating conditions for success and growing wise.
