SUBJECT: REVISED POLICY (OVER INCOME LIMIT)

Please be advised that Bristol Housing will be updating/revising the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy (ACOP) contingent upon Board approval at their February 27, 2019 meeting.

OVER INCOME LIMIT – HOTMA amends section 16(a) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437 n (a)) (1937 Act) to place an income limitation on a public housing tenancy for families. The law requires that after a family's income has exceeded 120 percent of the area median income (AMI) (or a different limitation established by the Secretary) for two consecutive years, a public housing agency (PHA) must terminate the family's tenancy within 6 months of the second income determination or charge the family a monthly rent equal to the greater of (1) the applicable Fair Market Rent (FMR); or (2) the amount of monthly subsidy for the unit including amounts from the operating and capital fund, as determined by regulations.
