

Hall, Melvin Dale

Melvin Dale Hall, 72, of Lighthouse Park, Port Hope, died Friday, Nov. 16, 2007 at Huron Medical Center in Bad Axe.

He was born July 6, 1935 in Filion, the son of late Egbert and Vera (Kennedy) Hall. Dale, as he was known, graduated from Kinde High School with the class of 1953. He worked for the Highland Park Water Department for six years, then joined the Highland Park Police Department where he worked for another six years. Dale then accepted a position with the Farmington Hills Police Department where he retired on Jan. 4, 1991 after 26 years of service. Dale was an avid hunter and outdoorsman.

He is survived by his sons, Bryan (Theresa) Hall of Royal Oak and Jeffery Hall of Warren; grandson, Drew Hall; and step-grandchildren, Katie and Sean Neumann; brother Donald (Loralee) Hall of Dryden; sisters, Edith (Gerald) Miner of Midland, Helen (Ken) Woodthorpe of Flushing and Ardith (LeRoy) Wooster of Port Hope; and many nieces, nephews and cousins. Funeral services will take place at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 20, 2007 at MacAlpine-Gage Funeral Home in Kinde with the Rev. Charles Steiner, nephew of Dale, officiating.

Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. today and from 10 a.m. until the service time Tuesday at the funeral home.

Interment will follow in the New River Cemetery, Port Austin Township.

A memorial will be established in the name of Melvin Dale Hall.
