I. ASSOCIATION COMMITTEES

Word received in the office concerning committees gives the following:

- Program - Cordelia Cox, Chairman
Julia Breidenbach, Minneapolis, Minnesota; Allen Copley, Pontiac, Michigan; Mrs. Mary Duesterberg, Houston, Texas; Helen High, Detroit, Michigan; Virginia Quattlebaum, Tifton, Georgia; Emilie Rannels, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.
- Education - (not one total committee, but functioning as sub-groups)
Florence Poole, Chairman
Opal Boston, Indianapolis, Indiana; Ruth Camblon, New York City; Mrs. Helen W. Harland, Urbana, Illinois; Marion Pierce, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Clarence L. Sager, Greenwich, Connecticut.
- Membership - Rose Goldman, Chairman
Esther Belcher, Lansing, Michigan; Josephine Scherzer, New York City; Helen Weston, Rochester, New York.
- Nominating - Margaret Carson, Chairman
Pearle Anderson, Minneapolis, Minnesota; Margaret Fields, Greenwich, Connecticut; Virginia Jacobsen, San Diego, California; Helen Weston, Rochester, New York; Grace E. Smith, Portsmouth, Virginia; Ann Zeringue, New Orleans, Louisiana.

All members of the Editorial Committee were reported in the previous issue, as well as the general plans of these committees.

The Program Committee will have plans ready for us in January. It is likely that the Association will participate in the annual conference of the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development, a department of N.E.A. This is particularly valuable for both groups since the school social worker needs to know everything possible about curriculum planning in his school system and the school social worker is in a position to be helpful in total curriculum planning.

II. EXECUTIVE OFFICE ACTIVITY

If only there were space to share with you some of the developments in and the interest in school social work in the places I work. Some of it comes to you piece meal in excerpts of reports from time to time. This brief summary may give you some picture of the places I have visited.

In Denver, Colorado your Executive Secretary met with the school social work staff of the public schools, had contacts with Dr. Sunley of the Denver School of Social Work and with Mrs. Freed of the State Department of Education. In Colorado Springs there was a meeting with a group of counselors and representatives from the public schools of Pueblo, with PTA county program committee chairmen, and with school and community people.

The Dallas visiting teachers had several sessions. In Fort Worth there was a meeting of principals, vice principals, curriculum representatives, counselors, etc. for discussion on "Visiting Teacher Service as an Integral Part of Curriculum".

Austin, Texas visiting teachers met for three sessions to discuss aspects of the job. In addition, Mr. Cunningham, Assistant Director of Pupil Personnel, arranged a luncheon meeting of both school and community representatives. There was time for discussion of visiting teacher work following the talk concerning the service. There was participation in a group conference with the Judge and probation worker of the court; and in a joint meeting of visiting teachers with curriculum planning and other school personnel. The Executive Secretary talked, too, at a meeting of the Board of Education in Austin. It is unfortunate that there isn't space to tell you of developments in each of these cities. You will want to know that the Austin Board of Education has just added another visiting teacher to its staff.

In Houston, Texas we had a number of meetings of the visiting teacher staff to discuss their work. In addition there was a meeting of the administrative group of the public schools, meetings with two Advisory Council groups, and with representatives from community agencies.

Orange and Port Arthur, Texas school people met together to discuss visiting teacher work. At Freeport one meeting was devoted to school personnel and another to community agency representatives working with the school.

Many individual conferences were planned, one of which was with Dr. Miles from Our Lady of the Lake School of Social Work in San Antonio.

Visiting teachers from the above and other cities in Texas plan to have a breakfast meeting at the State Teacher's Meeting in Dallas in November. Good thinking and planning is in process in these places concerning the visiting teacher program, its implementation in schools, its expansion, and in training plans for personnel.

III. NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Sarah Terrill, Regional Representative, Region V, writes that the school social workers (visiting teachers) arranged an exhibit at the annual conference of the Michigan Society for Mental Hygiene. There was considerable interest and they were asked to use it for the Michigan Welfare League meeting.

Earlier this year Mrs. Abigail S. Peck, Boston, a member of our Board of Directors, arranged an exhibit on school social work at the annual conference of the Massachusetts Society for Mental Hygiene.

The Tri-State Pupil Personnel Conference met in Evansville, Indiana this fall. Mrs. Sarah Terrill and Miss Opal Boston participated in a panel discussion. School social workers attending the conference met together informally.
