Holiday Party—A Huge Success

The Laguna Woods Art Association celebrated the start of the Holiday Season with a bountiful and elegant feast in CH1. Under the direction of Docia Reed, Kathie Podliska and some special volunteers, it was an evening of fun, chatter, extraordinary entertainment and excellent food. This was a very special opportunity to see our artists out of their aprons and painting gear; decked out in their holiday 'finery'. The music was performed by Ron Freshman who rocked the house with his marvelous repertoire of both classical and contemporary music.

THE VOLUNTEER SHOW

The Laguna Woods Art Association is taking the opportunity to say THANK YOU to the folks who always come through for us. The works of our Supervisors, Board Members and special helpers have been hung for us to enjoy through January 27th 2020. ### General Meeting & Demonstration January 28 7:30pm. Performing Arts Center

Guest Artist, Richard Broderick

Most of us first met Richard Broderick at our 2018 Oil Show when he was awarded Best in Show for his outstanding oil portrait. We now are fortunate to have him teach us his award-winning techniques in the LWAA's Friday morning portrait class.

An eclectic arts education that included studying with Disney animation led to Richard's unique ability to paint realistic yet emotionally powerful portraits. During his career he has painted everything from 20-foot portraits of David Bowie and Arnold Schwarzenegger for the Sunset Strip to animation storyboards. He then joined Walt Disney Imagineering where he worked for 10 years on concepts for Disney's California Adventures, Hong Kong, Disneyland and Disneyland Paris. He has taken advantage of his retirement to fine tune his painting techniques. Welcome Richard to Laguna Woods!
