Hodge Podge #18

Here again, are several topics I would like to share with you:

Thank you to all the people that helped to organize and staff the Turkey Shoot last Sunday at Sacred Heart. Thank you to all the people that showed up and bought food and tickets as well. Congratulations to all the people who won turkeys with your excellent marksmanship and I'm glad the weather worked out well for all of you. The Turkey Shoot continues to be a great tradition for Sacred Heart and thanks once again to all of you that help to make it such a great tradition every year!

Have a Happy Thanksgiving this week! I always enjoy my mom's stuffing this time of year and it is good to have a holiday that encourages people to be thankful for what they have in their lives. To be thankful for what we have is a hallmark of our Catholic faith, so it is good when the culture promotes being thankful as well. I pray that all of you will enjoy this time of food and fellowship with your family and friends. This holiday week will also change the times and availability of some Masses and Holy Hours so please check the bulletin for proper times.

One way you can express your thankfulness is by supporting the Mission Collection we have this weekend. You can help those people across the world that go without basic human needs that most of us take for granted such as food and water. "When you did it for the least of my brothers, you did it for me." People's lives can be changed for the better through your generosity. Thanks, for any amount you can give.

Some of you parishioners may be contacted through the Diocese to fill out an evaluation form for myself. This is standard procedure for the Diocese when a pastor is reaching the end of his term. Pastor terms are six years. A pastor is allowed two six-year terms at a parish, but then is required to go to another parish after the two terms. I am reaching the end of my first six-year term as your pastor. There are many factors that determine if I will have a second six-year term at St. Joseph and Sacred Heart. These evaluations are one of those factors. Anyone who has donated to the Annual Catholic Appeal is the list that the Diocese chooses potential evaluators from for a pastor. If you are chosen for this, simply answer how you truly feel and thanks for participating.

The big Ohio State-vs- Michigan game is next Saturday. Will the Buckeyes keep their winning streak against the Wolverines going? Urban Meyer was 7-0 against Michigan, but there is a new coach – Ryan Day. I would just like to state- GO BUCKS!

Thanks, and God Bless!!!
