

Nicholas and James Nesiti, sons of the late Deena Nesiti, who lived in Brentwood until after 8th grade. Deena tragically passed away from cancer in 2017. Her two boys have been left in the care of her mother, Lorraine, who is doing her best to provide for the boys. Lorraine plans to use the funds to finally buy a grave plot and marker for Deena and provide necessities for the boys who have lost their best friend.
