About Us

Mt. Lassen Journey Farthest Out is part of an ecumenical Christian movement birthed in 1930 by the visionary Dr. Glenn Clark. JFO is a time set apart for spiritual growth as we open our lives to God physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. We have a vision that our camp is a place where all people are accepted with the unconditional love that Jesus shares.

Mt. Lassen JFO is designed for people of all ages. We share our time and faith through the generations. A youth program is provided for toddlers through High School. Young Adults meet with their leader each evening for fellowship and fun.

You are invited to share in the Journey

First time and returning campers are all welcome. Sharing the camp experience can expose new facets to relationships and be rewarding for everyone.

INVITE A FRIEND!

Scholarships and Work Camperships

Lassen Camp is happy to provide some partial to full scholarships with priority given to first time campers. There are also a few work camperships available to those willing to work in the dining room daily. Campership applicants must be 18 years or older and have attended one previous camp full time.

Speaking Leaders

Mike Hegeman

Mike Hegeman is currently an associate pastor for education at a Presbyterian church in Scottsdale, Arizona. He has been attending CFO/JFO for almost 40 years. Mike started his "farthest out" journey after reading Agnes Sanford's book The Healing Light when he was 16 years old. He has been an educator for over 35 years, having worked with all ages of learners from preschool through graduate school. Mike holds a Ph.D. in Preaching, Rhetoric, and New Testament Studies from Princeton Theological Seminary, where he taught speech and preaching courses for 10 years. Mike also has a background in music; he is a composer of choral music and currently sings with the Phoenix Symphony Chorus. Mike is a certified hypnotherapist and a Reiki Master teacher. He seeks to bring together music, teaching, and faith in all he does.

Lamplighters

Lamplighters are past Lassen JFO campers who have been asked to give one Talk each during camp. This year we have asked several Lassen campers to share with us how God is working in their lives. Their stories are sure to inspire us.

Program Leaders

Songleader - Marta Narlesky

Accompanist- Dan Damon

Rhythms - Jo Rankin

Creatives - Jodi Terry

Check our Website for Leadership Updates as we get closer to Camp!

Parents and Sponsors are responsible for their youth for the entire camp day except when youth are engaged in age-appropriate, adult-led activities within the program. We encourage full participation in each aspect of the camp day for all campers.
