Dear Michael Bickelmeyer:

Congratulations on being commissioned as a notary public. A notary public is an officer of the State of Ohio, commissioned by the Secretary of State upon recommendation of a judge. As a notary public, you hold an important and dignified office and you will be expected to carry out these duties with care and dignity.

The enclosed commission is not valid and you may not act in your role as a notary public until you present the commission with the oath endorsed on the back of the commission to the clerk of the court of common pleas in the county in which you reside.

Ohio Revised Code Chapter 147 provides you with the laws related to notarial acts and should be followed at all times. Failure to comply with the law may result in removal from this role.

Congratulations and best wishes in your new role.

Sincerely,

Ohio Secretary of State
