

LUXURY. NOW AVAILABLE IN YOUR BACK POCKET

New apps for your smartphone or tablet allow you to catch that great exhibit, charter a flight or purchase your own aircraft at the touch of a button, bringing you instant access to cyber luxury.

1. The Met App

Putting one of the world's most renowned art collections at your fingertips, The Metropolitan Museum of Art has recently launched the Met app. With gallery hours, highlights, admission details and activities, the app allows art lovers to peruse the offerings at both the Met and The Cloisters with just a few, user-friendly touches.

2. Gulfstream

Offering real-time inventory listings, high-quality photography and detailed aircraft information, including total flight hours and landings, the aircraft's entry-into-service date and pricing; Gulfstream's recently debuted Pre-Owned Aircraft App connects potential customers to an experienced sales team to let you shop for your next aircraft at any time and without having to leave your home or office.

3. Jetsmarter

Jetsmarter's new app is like having your own personal jet on permanent stand-by. With easy to navigate features including empty leg updates, the ability to track your frequent locations, search by jet options and a secure system for handling invoices and payments; you can request, fly and pay faster than you can pack an overnight bag.
