9MusesArtCenter is a program of the Mental Health Association of Southeast Florida. It is a project designed to provide those with behavioral health issues the opportunity for recovery through means of self-expression. Members are free to choose from a broad array of visual and performing arts. Classes and personalized instruction along with individual studio time allow each artist to create according to his/her own personal "muse". 9MusesArtsCenter is pleased to offer a sampling of our classes for clients and guests to experience. Group rates are assigned to the samplers below:
