“God does not play dice with the universe.”

– Albert Einstein, The Born-Einstein Letters 1916-55

The seeds of the tree are used for dice.

Time begins to evolved from a cyclic cycle of re-occurrence in the life-time of a seed. The seed begins as a simple embryo, but evolves upwards to the heights and downwards to the roots. These dendrite/axiom relations to what we involute and evolute is a simple suggestion that inner is reaching up in an outward descent while outer is actually reaching down into hell. Is not but the objective “outer” reality but an experience of Hell? The only seed of self is the root of the beginning.

Time.

That is all we have. Some of us don't have very much.

It seems relative that the patterns associate with the Dice, could be “reduced” to simple geometric principles upon the “seed”; thus each “throw” or “suggestions” could induce a pattern or tendency to want to develop a new sense of Heroism. This expansive sense of greed, a fire (soul) of desire burns like Indra throughout the Being willing to be a Blue Fire. So as the Candle allows for each flickering appearance, it could show that in all actually, this is a Metaphor for an Apocalypse of Self. (A resignation of conscious conclusion that one remains in “control” of life (according to regulated norms)).

“7 Dice, verily, are armed with goads and driving-hooks, deceiving and tormenting, causing grievous woe. “

By playing God, we are creating the destruction of our Essence, we develop our “tactics” and strategies to overlap patterns and tendencies to stimulate growth...What does Growth lead to? Death. So by always trying to develop a pattern and manipulate “time” to suggest that a “dice” can't create a pattern is a development of simple mathematics. The lower the state, the more energy, hence more patterns can develop from the Shaman's vision. The Higher the state, the less energy so it is harder to use the Chi.

In essence, the lower amount of “dice” there are, the easier it is to predict the pattern. So the framework of time is a development of a pattern that allows the user to see into the reality and manipulate the coefficients of the Ether to allow him the right to see and bend with sight.

“13 Play not with dice: no, cultivate thy corn-land. Enjoy the gain, and deem that wealth sufficient. “
Corn still grows in the Dark. Vegetable seeds need to be taught that there are two sides to life.

To end the conclusion.

“As of a costly horse grown old and feeble, I find not any profit of the gamester. “

All Reality should be based upon Freedom. The Horse gives us the Right to see through lens of money, the root of all evil.

Freedom means that you are not attached to a certain persona including the masculine and feminine energies.

A horse is a emotional stability and coherence of the heart were the being is able to stabilize his procedure and Εὐκλειδης his actions in proper adherence to the Law. The Law being, Be Pure, Be Honest. Tricky business this thing called Honesty.

What is the (ill)usion?

Maya spells weavers like fabrics charms existence. The illusion has truth and untruth.

“To recognize untruth as a condition of life--that certainly means resisting accustomed value feelings in a dangerous way; and a philosophy that risks this would by that token alone place itself beyond good and evil.”

– Friedrich Nietzsche, Beyond Good and Evil

An illusion is beyond good and evil; beyond the abyss, staring at you in the face. It is a haunting nightmare of the time you wished but did not keep, but the time you rolled and gambled your ambitions away, not following the path you know was “good”. There of four states of karma, good-good, good-bad, bad-good and bad-bad. Is your goodhood intention leading you to Godhood; or beyond Nirvana?

A spell is a dream upon a land that is asleep. Yet the dream of life is confirmed by dreaming life. The illusion the mind plays on a complex circuit alternating and directing through a collective empathy: towards a higher collective integrity. Yet each of these integrities, balances the passion, always for the case of freedom to be essential. Freedom, in this aspect; the middle-way, is a miracle in the linear fashion. As you exist without existing, but focus without focusing, you release the sensation and just flow into the colours as a flower. As the Lila always gives nectar to those who wait, so does the value of patience play a key role in life’s court of justice. Yet, each law of intent allows the subject to modify the will of self by the congruent case of self. The self creates a wisdom for the human to develop into an awareness that creates an “One”, a subject/object lens that merges the Rayon into all pathways of life (Two becomes One, reverse Mitosis (<http://sciencenetlinks.com/science-news/science-updates/cells-in-reverse/>)).

The state of Godhood is thus a state of the abyss. When in nothingness, the forming and reforming of essential geometric shapes creates “Order” into a state of awareness. This allowance of Shakti provides a Prajna for the user to develop an awareness of power. This power is a state of magical affairs between this and that brings freedom to those who condition themselves into a state of awareness. By allowing freedom and essential positive natural outlooks, the gambling sense of life is thrown away and existence is a choice “to be”. This nature of communication with the root of who you are allows the existence of the monad to develop into a unio mystica were the assemblage of beings gathers around a gravitational force “”(Maharishi Effect (The Maharishi Effect is a phase transition to a more orderly and harmonious state of life in society as measured by decreased crime, violence, accidents, and illness, and improvements in economic conditions and other sociological indicators. The scientists who discovered this effect named it in honour of Maharishi Mahesh Yogi, who predicted it thirty years ago. Maharishi had predicted that when a critical sub-population of individuals - 1% - experienced and stimulated the field of pure consciousness through the Transcendental Meditation Programme, a type of macroscopic field effect of coherence would occur in the society and the quality of life would improve. This would manifest in more orderly and harmonious individual behaviour and a measurable improvement in the various social indices which characterise the quality of life in society.)””

The centrifugal allowance of this state, combines with the dream of the illusion and subjects the relationship of hell and heaven in one existence. This duality is knowing both good and bad, and that is what we are taught to know. That is beyond good and evil. Knowing is the de-knowing dissolution of all archetypes into a state of nothingness into which the reinforcement of dark matter, (shakti/order) bringing coherence to all states of “mind/body/soul” complex, and soul’s are evidence supported in all researched area’s of subjective lenses.

Metempsychosis is a state of a subjective hell/heaven awareness that allows the illusion to play various games with the continuity of conditioning. The truth lies in the experience, not in the imagination. Yet the imagination is a good tool to reinforce the collective to different suggestions of how nature should evolve, but as we know, thoughts are installments and could be easy prey, and as images in action can be voiced in quiet solitude, the knowing of all truths reveals itself into a single awareness.

To be, or not to be, that is the question—
Whether 'tis Nobler in the mind to suffer
The Slings and Arrows of outrageous Fortune,
Or to take Arms against a Sea of troubles,
And by opposing end them? To die, to sleep—
No more; and by a sleep, to say we end
The Heart-ache, and the thousand Natural shocks
That Flesh is heir to? 'Tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wished. To die, to sleep,
To sleep, perchance to Dream; Aye, there's the rub,
For in that sleep of death, what dreams may come,
When we have shuffled off this mortal coil,
Must give us pause. There's the respect
That makes Calamity of so long life:
For who would bear the Whips and Scorns of time,
The Oppressor's wrong, the proud man's Contumely,

The pangs of despised Love, the Law's delay,

- Act III, Scene i, so called from Prince Hamlet's admonitions of "Get thee to a nunnery" to his former lover Ophelia.

Brahman is full of all perfections. And to say that Brahman has some purpose in creating the world will mean that it wants to attain through the process of creation something which it has not. And that is impossible. Hence, there can be no purpose of Brahman in creating the world. The world is a mere spontaneous creation of Brahman. It is a Lila, or sport, of Brahman. It is created out of Bliss, by Bliss and fort Bliss. Lila indicates a spontaneous sportive activity of Brahman as distinguished from a self-conscious volitional effort. The concept of Lila signifies freedom as distinguished from necessity.

Time, like gambling, has a cyclic nature that evolution through natural recurrent/selection. The process is like the metaphor "the strongest survive", yet the more honest solution is "the man with the most money wins" or "the house always wins". In this essence, we can see that those who are under the pressure of daily living, growing in conditions of trauma, existential uncertainty, and even cases of psychosis, can develop an awareness of nothingness that allows for a mental clearance of the mind and opens the pathways to easier 'altruistic' folding. The plasticity of a brain is just like the ripples on a lake, the more ripples, the greater the force, so by less thoughts, or "stones" or "stonings", the individual can access the emotions that are being bypassed by the mind. By reinforcing a state of time to the individual, allowing self-discipline in awareness, the subject can see through the lens-perception of what is, and what is not; as to say, what is; is right.

The Medical System has a great Positive/Negative symptoms that can define behaviours and not Words. The installments of possessions or even “psychosis” or “detachment” or “mania” or “anxiety” are all of the system. Before, did the Shamans think to call it the mind? No. They used means of supporting the process of realization to the individual and allowed for the fabrication of what is to support the process. Yet, if the possession was unnatural, means of medicine or even witch-doctors were used to summon and sacrifice the individual for the common-good. How could the scales out-weigh the injustice of the state?

The science has elaborated that different symptoms and degrees of pressures are placed upon the individual, sacrificing the self for what is thought, but not what is known. To Western Medical Model, it supports the hypothesis the Freudian psychoanalysis, The American Dream and Capitalism is a great system. Yet, how is a Model of Human behaviours based upon a man who used more cocaine than could kill a horse?

The most logical and sound Medical Model we could adopt would be Jungian. The Jungian allows one to see the Archetypal patterns but also develop through own awareness through the procession of the primordial essence (Aether) which allows for unlimited geometrical designs. The designs are conditions of maya that are placed upon the individual to recognize the distortion of the Ego in the situation that is arising. The Ego or Self-Claimed-Possession recognizes that the elements of distraction are present, but the mind is always trying to spin the split into all directions.

The symptoms defined by the DSM-5 are congruent to the cases of possession, but some possessions are of Light and some of are Dark. Darkness needs light always but Light needs only Light. As to say, unnatural cases of darkness support a hypothesis that the procedure is unnatural so unnatural means must be taken. Assay, the hypothesis I am concluding here is that some “chemicals” of “unnatural” kinds are temporary replacements for distortions of what is. Yet, they can only be used as LIMITED means in which to control and sedate until common-neutrality is reached.

The use of chemicals to control the awareness allows the slowing of thoughts and a common reduction of transmission; as the mind is a receiver, the transmission in-coming is relative to the chaos of the produced state and could be put into a logical state. The transmission is much like the “neuro-transmitters”, the collection of good(dopamine) or bad(?) thoughts can allow different states to come and allowances of dissonance reflections of what is. The pathways are connecting and reforming as a earthquake would shake the ground. The mind is in an unstable place, so the setting could disrupt the current coming from Source. Yet, the Source-Systems develops as awareness, and projects itself into itself. So by facing the demon of self, which in case is the possession of the “introverted-psychic-being” the temptation to evaluate all conditions of life and promote the Truth of what is is like risking the freedom of a wild horse. The horse runs through the valleys, mountains, and trogges free amongst the dew, but once man tames him, he has lost his ability to be free. Does the Horse work for the man or does the man work for the Horse?

Meducation - using pills to numb out suffering in the process of labelling individuals; monopolizing capitalism to an extreme suffering of a "cattle-syndrome" mentality: (follow the herd).

"Dopamine" is a "so-called" feel good drug. Has anyone on "Dopamine" every felt good about being on "Dopamine"? The Brian is a transmission source of Thought, focusing the Mind into logic and a foundational Reality formed through the existence of patterns. Patterns are produced collectively, just like the gambling of a dice, yet freedom is always a "manned" experience.

The condition of survival of the fittest, a "Darwin-grab-bag" extreme, combines the rationality the geographical location is an indication of locality. Thus, the geometric forms (conditioned clay) humans allow the society to reason that the pattern of success, a dream of success, and a result of success is all Good. Yet anyone who can see, fundamentally see's that the boom and bust cycle continues throughout time. Success leads to failure, failure leads to success. This is a Jungian Libido effect; also in accordance with physics because every negative follows a positive and every positive follows a negative. In essence, disorder creates Order (Harmony, Peace) and Disorder (Chaos) promotes the dissolution of what is. To form a collective thought before into Harmony, one must see what is Truly Good.

God does not play dice, nor did Adam name the animals in such a way to harm them. Man is an animal, and we are prey to yourself. We can see that animals were in a state of now before the Human and even formulating that the Plants are respected even by the animals, - what herbivore eats more than his healthy diet?

To eat, to get fat, to get fat, to get sad, to get sad, to get depressed, to get depressed, you eat.

Gluttony loves more food and so does capitalism. Yet, the secret of Nimh is some rats can unlock their mind in ways within; being Reborn as Nicodemus would postulate; Within is Heaven; Order, without is Chaos; A man Reborn into Order while only insure Chaos around him. The rate of Order is proportional to the rate of Disorder. So, the more one is in suffering, or in the mind, the more chaotic the suffering will be. Allowing the suffering to act upon hunger, this hunger is for bread, yet truly the beggar knows the True value of Hunger.

Drugs condition the Mind to Survive. To survive is to succeed. And to succeed is to be hungry with desire. The more conditioned the form is with desire, the more intense the suffering as the fire always burns. To condition this, one must chop wood and carry water; flowing like a placid lake upon the memory of what was, but also using the memory to flame and excite the emotional response of the suffering. To suffer is noble; and perchance, suffering the slings and arrows of misfortune is like a bandit whose tricks of the trade only lose.

Yet the loser always wins, the man with the least money always feels like when he has it he has the most.

“Dopamine” triggers a response in rats to want more food, hence produce a higher state of survival. Thus, the state of reproduction is instilled and more food thus is produced. How can a simple family keep calm with food when the suffering is so intense? Give them some pills.

The suffering in today's society is not dealt with, it is hidden behind closed doors like an Elephant dancing in a parade. One can just see the nuisance of what is, and the suffering creates an explosion of vulnerability to those around them, yet those conditioned by the necessity of desire without, cannot face the feelings of those who are within. Thus, the Order of those within, the placidity of a lost siddhi, finds chaos around themselves and thus are conditioned to survive. When in survival mode, the mode to survive is hunger and the thirst for blood is extreme. The repressed tension within explodes without like a supernova, creating a disturbance of what is in the being and recollection for what was. This is a flaw in plants, for men who die are but dust in the wind. Yet the dust contains the fragments of what was, what was is able to recollect itself through different mediums to the human psyche. Thus, to be vulnerable to self is seen to be an addiction. Yet those who can moderate the states within and without are not addicted. (WET) let's us see that the trauma can condition the use of any substance and condition the being into the modality. One is for hunger, one is for Self.

To connect to oneSelf it is to simply be a mirror, reflect like a lake the steady gaze of light and pierce the soul with a effect of illumination.

A Road Less Travelled

The light trail shone upon a fray of bricks. Constructed was ample distinction between the days of old, twas a thought pondered before a simple walk. A gesture of pain, a tolerance of each opinion, an oppression of what thought is right, when an example of suchness, comes through like a dance of time, a single wave that sources and currents along the roads of time.

The libraries contained herein, of that of what once shone to my mind, but time before time is also blind like mankind.

A gesture, a simple nook, a common mistake, a path of the noose. A common curse of death upon a man, but the sight of the land is like a greed of each rope. Tethering the individual to the sphere's of hell, seven realms caught within oneself. Fear (Wrath in Fear), lust, envy, sloth, greed, pride and gluttony. Each sphere of the deadly sins is like a tale unto each man. Each test, like a martyr in Rome, pursuing the name of Light in hope of a brighter future. Giving to Caesar what was Caesar's but to God what was God. Brighter is the day in hope; - less fog.

Given roads of merry silver tides, to coastal reaches of silken webbed holds; were constructed by the mirage of a Truth, an illusion that swiftly defies the mirror of what is. The currents are strong against the tales of before, yet many roads one takes to get back to the same door. Many turns, many bricks, many hardships, many whips, even cruxes and crowns of despair, as a spear would pierce like an Impeller blood. Yet even the dragons that spilled blood on every road, turning forked tongues for men to turn savage on each-other. When common ground states that we are developed from Earth's Mother. A planet to set in motion, a road less travelled, a way of mistake, yet redemption to each city. The cities allowed for the Sources to developed into a Co-acting bond between the ambient forces between the symbiosis of life. The currents allowed each thought and Word to travel quicker between cities and developed the system of communication between humans. The sequence of events that led to the bricks laying the foundation for the rocks of time, allowed for the seeds to be sown along the paths of men. Each note, each word, each emotion, each relationship developed into another platform above the stage. Each play continued through the World, but even The Globe was not enough for the Fire's of time. As straw huts will always burn. Bricks must keep foundations strong and allow for the temples of time to keep powers of Right in Check and Balances. These places of establishment set in time a phase for men to see what was, what is, and rebuild what was lost. Yet greed, allowed men to see the mistake of what was. They followed the mineral thought that to rebuild a house, one must use materials. But this is a common mistake, for even a sacred iron is not as sacred as a sacred gold. Yet the fold allowed men to see that gold could be harvested as a prime source of income, this income would support the trade of government reign and produce a scare tactic to develop a stronger reliance on greed. Greed allowed fear to become present, and by using greed to develop a collective community, the process of conditioning could begin. Power corrupts, so by giving people a hope for more, the allowance of greed set in motion that those with the power to support the motivation of greed, that the fear of losing all would continue the American Dream and henceforth shine to individuals to envy the possessions of others. This envy, was like a lust for another man's wife, yet even more posed by worshipping a material item that will perish like a moth. How can a rich man get to Heaven? Even the camel doesn't know... A beggar can't choose how to live, but a beggar is always wiser than a King, for a beggar can see the True hunger from a Loaf of Bread. The ambrosia of sweet taste delights the hunger of the beggar who wishes a'far.

Yet the dream of life is a dream of the illusion. The roads are forked, you can always split, and you can take any direction indifferent. But each path you choose, a choice will follow, will you live you life in sugar, or be a hollow?
