

V.C.M.E.C. Model Horse RE·VIEW

Vol. 8 No. 3 ~ Autumn 2023

Vintage customs were among the model horses enjoying four days in the public spotlight last month at the Gogebic County (Mich.) Fair. Awarded the Performance Grand was Mr. C, created from a Breyer Five-Gaiter around 1990 by the late Nettie Keranen of Michigan, who also crafted his tack. Mr. C is bound for the VCMEC Museum!

A Word to the Fore: Something's Lurking as she'd also done for another of the model horse hobby's founders, Marney Walerius, in 2021. The drive was a success, Linda's plaque joined Marney's in the Alltech Arena at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, Ky., and on July 15 at this year's BreyerFest there, Kathy, Beth Peart, Sue Rowe, and a flock of other hobbyists gathered to commemorate the occasion and share memories. Fortunately for those of us not able to be there, videos were recorded and can be seen on Kathy's "Remembering Marney Walerius" Facebook group page. You're the best, Kathy!

In August, Corky and I had two weeks of fun at first the Iron County (Wis.) Fair, a 20-minute drive west, and then the Gogebic County (Mich.) Fair, just five minutes from home. This was our second year volunteering at Gogebic, and we enjoyed it even more than before, which really takes some doing!

Once again, it's time to write the ol' "Word to the Fore" column--and once again, I glanced at last issue's column first and found myself thinking, "Man, I had no idea what was coming...!"

I haven't been right for a while. It was back to the hospital for some procedures on Aug. 24--and it turns out I have endometrial cancer. The prognosis is good, knock wood. But if you could spare some good thoughts on Oct. 3, when I'll be having surgery in Duluth, a couple hours west of here, would sure appreciate it.

It's hard to keep my mind from chasing its tail about what the docs might find, and everything I want to do that's still undone. Then there's the stuff that needs to be done, like the Re-View. Fortunately, Corky's always game to help! The fifth leg of the 2022-23 VCMEC Online World Championships series is currently being judged by Sue Stahl, and I'll be showing Corky how to replace the three-digit barn code with entrants' initials in those results and how to enter them in the next issue of the Re-View, which gets put together using the Marq desktop publishing software online.

Will also get the judging templates and info to the judge of the series' concluding sixth leg, Shannon Rodgers, before Oct. 3. That leg isn't until December, but I'll feel better knowing she has the makings.

How about some good news? In late July we were thrilled to receive a hefty box from Alicia Vogel, filled with more treasure from the hobby library of the late Beth Andries, who passed away in May 2021: several 1974-79 issues of "The Model Horse Showers' Journal" to add to our Model Animal Hobby History Archive! In 2020, Alicia and Beth also donated 39 beautifully organized binders of Beth's 1984-2008 model horse magazines and newsletters for the Archive. We're looking forward to cataloging the vintage customs in their pages! Our heartfelt thanks again to Alicia and Beth.

"The Model Horse Showers' Journal" was one of the most important publications in the history of the hobby, crammed with information, humor, and love by editor Linda Walter. One of the founders of the model horse hobby, Linda passed away in January at age 75.

Longtime hobbyist Kathy Wells spearheaded a GoFundMe drive to raise money for a memorial plaque in Linda's honor,

This year I was the clerk of the Antiques department, and also served as the track photographer for the fair's two days of harness racing when their usual track photographer wasn't able to make it. As a kid I wanted to be a harness racetrack photographer when I grew up...so to get to do it at last, even for just two days, was a thrill!

This fair is rather rare in that its exhibits include a Model Animal department. After Corky was its clerk last year, the previous department head happily handed her the reins. Corky promptly fine-tuned the classlist and enlisted Julie Froelich as this year's judge to make the 2023 edition even bigger and better! She did a fantastic job too as a spokesman for the model horse hobby, fielding questions from passing folks and letting the kiddos touch Jefferson, our Breyer Belgian flocked and haired to be a dapple grey Percheron. See page 6!

The biggest upcoming model horse news is that Tom Bainbridge plans to disperse his epic collection at a live auction Oct. 27-29 in Wellston, Mich. I'll be out of commission to make the trip (sob!), but be sure to join his "TGB Dispersal and Auction" group on Facebook for more info!

Hope you'll have a beautiful autumn...and hope we'll see you next issue, in December!

-Sparky C.

Space filler! Transformations: Breyer Traditional Lady Phase - Below are two vintage customs that began as this versatile Breyer model sculpted by Chris Hess: far left, Morgan stallion Sympathy For The Demon (Julie Froelich, 1986), and far right, Appaloosa mare Shattered Diamond (Kathleen Maestas, mid-1980s). Both are bound for the VCMEC Museum.

Vintage Customs Go Big at Gogebic County Fair!

There aren't many opportunities like the Gogebic County Fair!

Held in Ironwood, Mich., on Aug. 10-13 this year, the fair's exhibits include a Model Animals department with four divisions: model horse breed classes, model horse performance classes, classes for other animals, and scene classes.

The classes, judged this year by longtime model horse artist Julie Froelich (shown at right in blue/black, with department clerk Corky Visminas of VCMEC), drew a broad range of entries. A mix of OF and customized Breyers was joined by horses by Hagen-Renaker, Hartland, Starlite Creations, and Stone, and other animals by Beswick, Bing & Grondahl, CollectA, Favorite, Goebel and more.

Another golden oldie, saddleseat specialist Mr. C by Nettie Keranen, even won the Grand award in the performance division (and this issue's front cover)!

Displaying the entries for 4 days makes for a great chance to speak with the public about the hobby while keeping an eye on things. Corky fielded questions on judging criteria, horse breeds, customizing, types of tack, various makes of the entries, and the hobby in general. Kids loved getting to touch Jefferson the flockie Percheron, too.

Thanks so much to the Gogebic County Fair for providing this opportunity for model animals--and vintage customs!--to shine for the public!

WRAP-UP

Andrea writes, "I have finished!!!! Wow what a month, I have enjoyed this so much, and thank you so much for allowing me to judge, I LOVE LOVE LOVE the old vintage models, and I know resins took over, but nothing beats a great customised plastic pony! And so many talented artists who really are amazing! This series is just great as we can see just how many GREAT horses still exist.

"It is hard to find many in Australia, but I have over the years got some from down here as well as I am grateful for those people around the world who have sold to me, as I know not many people like to post overseas.

"I started in model horses in 1987 when I got my first #89 Black Beauty, who is still with me. I still have a collection of over 600, I love to collect the old OFs but also the old customs, I have a few I sold and regret it! But I still have many that I still photostow here in Australia.

"I also started the Australian Model Club - AIMHC (Australasian International Model Horse Club) - when the previous club folded and we had none. The AIMHC still going strong some 30 years later! I feel old now, but we here in Australia still have photo shows and high point awards, there is a Facebook page, and happy for new members to join, it's an emailed newsletter 4 times a year, for $5 Aus. I am also happy to proxy show if you ever wanted to send photos to show in the photo shows.

"I also hold an annual vintage photo show in Australia each year, and it's been quite popular with people getting their oldies out, both OF and customs.

"I did live in Ohio, USA over 20 years ago and met some amazing people, some of whom I am still friends with today. I would like to thank you Ardith for all the hard work you do in this series and for vintage models, you ROCK!!!!!!!!!"

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

WICKENDEN OSPREY

Welsh Sec. B stallion ~ CM by Cheryl Abelson & Cindy Drousseau in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed
and Workmanship, and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "The RR (what CM was called back in the day) Grand Champion of Marney Walerius' 1979 Model Horse Congress, foremost live show of its time, Wickenden Osprey was for years a celebrity in Liz Bouras' superstar stable. I visited her place in 1986, and as she handled him almost reverently and reeled off his accomplishments, I thought about what a responsibility it must be to be the caretaker of such an intimidatingly iconic horse.

"Just over a quarter-century later, Liz invited offers for some of her treasures, and I asked after Osprey. Liz explained that he was in need of restoration; Cheryl Abelson had haired his mane and tail with hair from her English Sheepdog, but the hair had disintegrated over time, and he also needed some minor touch-ups. With my promise to get him restored, Liz allowed me to buy him! Meghann Hoscheid then did a wonderful job restoring him.

"This is my 11th year of responsibility for safeguarding this hobby legend, and Liz having passed away last year makes that responsibility all the deeper. I'm so grateful to her for the opportunity to look after him!"

ROCKLEDGE DIAMOND LARK

Appaloosa mare ~ CM by Kathleen Maestas in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color and Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Rockledge Diamond Lark was kinda rescued from her previous owner, a very young lady not interested in participating at any level in our hobby. She was getting married and I bought 'Lark' and her baby from her. The poor little tyke was in bad shape and I have since lost her. Momma is in great shape for her years and I dearly loved her when I saw her. Kathleen's artistry has always been a favorite, even her very fanciful work. This dear old gal will always have a home here."

BIRCHWOOD GEISHA BOY

Hackney Horse gelding ~ CM by Beth Peart in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Beth Peart writes, "I got to thinking about how Birchwood Geisha Boy acquired his line prefix. I believed that wa-a-a-y back in the day there was a real Hackney line by the name of Birchwood, and that is where I poached the name but, for the life of me, having spent about 60 minutes searching for evidence of these horses and finding none, I wonder if that memory is a delusion. It's not even coming up in the All Breed Pedigree Database, so perhaps it came from a flight of fancy of mine. It wouldn't be the first time. There were a few 'Birchwood' Hackneys made by me. I only know of three survivors, two of which are still with me. Regardless of the name's origin, I'm happy it has taken a place in the history of the model horse hobby."

SUNSHINE'S P.O. PLENTY

Appaloosa stallion ~ CM by Sue Rowe in the 1980s

1980s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "It's not often you see a photo shot looking down at a model horse cantering across the kitchen linoleum! But even from that angle, the snazzy Appaloosa in that eBay listing 14 years ago pretty clearly had class...so I took a chance on him, and wound up winning what turned out to be a Sue Rowe creation! Talk about hitting the jackpot--Sue's Appaloosas are the gold standard for that breed in the model world!"

"The seller unfortunately didn't know anything about the horse or his history, and neither did anyone else when I ran an ad on the Model Horse Sale Pages website asking if anyone recognized him (although I was so glad when he was finally recognized more than a decade later as having shown for Lorraine Kistler as Sunshine's Deluxe Dial!), so he needed a name.

"Sue usually includes 'Sunshine' in the name of her Appaloosas. Remembering Sue's legendary hat printed with the phrase (and/or challenge) 'Ask Me About My Plastic Oddities,' I tried coming up with something that would include 'P.O.' for Plastic Oddity. The name of 'Dick Tracy' character B.O. Plenty came right to mind, and an outside photo session later, Sunshine's P.O. Plenty was ready to roll.

"Ever since then, he's shown against customs a fraction of his age in clubs including MEPSA and TOPSA. But the golden oldies gathered in the VCMEC World Championships series are the toughest of 'em all, and I'm so proud of him for this big win!"

MISS SMOKUM ROYAL

Quarter Horse mare ~ CM by Deb Preuit in 1988

1980s Overall Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "MY, MY! Miss Smokum Royal was a custom order to Deb Preuit-Lenzner. She was one of the mere handful of custom orders I ever commissioned. I saw a buckskin similar pose and sent her the photos to paint by. I thought she turned out truly lovely. One of my favorite photo showers! Her paint finish is fragile, as most lightly airbrushed finishes are. I have to take great care handling her."

RASTAMAN

Shagya Arabian stallion ~ CM by Beth Peart in 1980

1980s Overall Champion Workmanship

Beth Peart writes, "In 1980 I had been in university studying art history for two years, when I made Rastaman. In a stroke of inspired insanity I looked at a Family Arabian Mare and figured I could recreate the horse from Théodore Géricault's 1812 painting 'The Charging Chasseur' out of it. Back then, I showed him as an Arabian, but more recently he's been shown as a Shagya Arab, a type that made up a significant part of Napoleon's Imperial Cavalry. Despite his coloration, he got the name 'Rastaman' from the way his mane, made of rayon fibre, fanned out. It reminded me of the way Bob Marley flung his locks in rapt performance. One of these days I hope to replicate him, correct his structural issues, use more durable modern filler, and ask permission, perhaps, to cast the result."

JAMIL MHURATT (CR)

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in 1988

1980s Overall Res. Champion Breed

MON'NAFA RANI

Arabian mare ~ CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in 1988

1980s Overall Res. Ch. Workmanship

Cheryl Ridge writes, "This full sister and brother were brought to life by Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig in 1988. Now in their mid 30s, these early works of Sarah's keep on keeping on. I remain proud and delighted to be their custodian."

"Sarah exported Rani to me 'down under' at the end of 1989. Rani was shown by me for over a decade but had a big break when I took a break from the hobby. Jamil joined us from Germany in 2005 during my hiatus. I was thrilled just to have this precious boy who had called America, Germany and now Australia his home. His time would come."

"Fast forward another decade or so. My collection still in storage but hearing about the VCMEC show series in 2016 encouraged me to bring my oldies out of retirement! And a perfect place to showcase Jamil who had been largely unshown!

"Here we are now in our fourth season of participating in the VCMEC show series. It has been a thrill to have Rani and Jamil embraced and highly awarded to date. Not to mention MULTIPLE Victory Laps between them. My heartfelt thanks to the judges and the rest of the VCMEC and vintage custom community."

LADY OF TRIESTE (CM)

Clydesdale mare ~ CM by Mel Riegsecker in 1985

1980s Overall Res. Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Lady Of Trieste is a Mel Riegsecker flocked trophy. I purchased this piece at the estate auction of the Clydesdale breeder who won this trophy. It was at the bottom of a paper BAG covered with other household bric-a-brac. I took her carefully out and placed her on top of the other stuff in the bag, then waited at that table. Got the whole bag and her for $2.00! She was horribly dusty but a unique color Clyde for a trophy!"

PEGI SOO ~ Damara Zebra mare ~ CM by Lee Francis in 1994

1990s Overall Champion Breed

Congratulations to owner Corrie Soboda!

PAGLIACCI

Paint gelding ~ CM by Ed Gonzales and Sarah Minkiewicz in 1993

1990s Overall Champion Color

Leah Breniser writes, "Wow! Talk about a surprise! Competition is amazing and I was not expecting anything like this. He is a fairly recent (past year) addition to my collection."

"Pagliacci is a John Henry combo between Sarah M. and Ed Gonzales. I'm not 100% sure of who did what, but he was an impulse purchase from a good friend who was selling their vintage customs and is one of the highlights of my vintage collection."

"I look at the Model Horse Gallery to find information on horses I buy to see if they have additional information aka names (thinking of names can be...daunting!), plus I like keeping the history of the model with them. I found him and was thrilled he was already named."

"I actually purchased him to be a performance horse! My photography skills however are not quite up to that challenge at the moment, but I'm still working on it. Lol!"

"My thanks to you for having this amazing venue for vintage customs and to the judges who have to judge them!"

GOSSAMER WINGS ~ Arabian mare ~ CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in 1993

1990s Overall Champ Workmanship

Congratulations to owner Kirsten Wellman!

PR NAZEEM AL-ASHAB

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Margaret Hallam in 1999

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed and Workmanship

Jane Varin writes, "I am delighted that Nazeem has shown well this time. He is a re-painted & haired Huckleberry Bey, done by the wonderfully talented UK artist Margaret Hallam in 1999 (so only just eligible for this series!). I purchased him 13 years ago from a fellow UK collector and friend, but sadly I don't know how long she owned him for or when/where she acquired him. I am a huge fan of Margaret's work; I think I own about 20 customs done by her, and I feel very fortunate to have them too. Her PR suffix stands for Paradise Ranch. Margaret can turn her hand to any color, but I think her flea-bitten and dapple greys are amongst her very best, and Nazeem often places very well in color classes. He also likes to strut his stuff in Egyptian Dancing Horse tack and he is currently showing in TOPSA doing just that. Well done Nazeem!"

GET YOUR GROOVE ON

Mule filly ~ CM by Diane Capwell in the 1990s

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Jamie Coughlin writes, "So happy she got a title! I got her off one of Diane Capwell's saleslists. We were friends and pen pals so I got to see the models she was working on in various stages. GYGO was just remade at that time (PAF). I don't even remember if she was a mule or not then. I asked her for a wild appy mule foal and let her have at it. She's one of those models I won't ever sell, she'll be in my estate sale!"
