JR. HIGH STUDENT WANTS TO BE AN AUTHOR

On October 27th, 7th grader, Breeanna P. attended the Louisianan Book Fest workshops entitled “No World Like Mine” presented by Joshilyn Jackson and “Writing with Voice” presented by Jeff Zentner.

Breeanna aspires to be a published author and has been working for years on manuscripts such as Council of Heroes and Magical Wish. During the workshops, she was able to interact with other hopeful authors, share much of her own works and learn essential skills from published writers.

Joshilyn Jackson is the author of eight novels and a novella, including gods in Alabama, The Opposite of Everyone, and most recently The Almost Sisters. Jeff Zentner is the author of William C. Morris Award winner and Carnegie Medal longlist The Serpent King, and most recently, Goodbye Days.

SENIOR PICTURE DAY!

The Class of Maurepas High School took their formal cap and gown pictures, along with tuxedo and drape pictures, and casual ones as well on Friday, October 20th. Mrs. Lori Hess and Mrs. Cassie Felps took the girls to Mrs. Becky Blount’s studio early that morning to get started, while Mrs. Shannon Gautreau and Mrs. Jeanne Mayers enjoyed a fun breakfast date at University Donuts with the boys. After taking a multitude of pictures, the class had a late lunch at Cate Street in Hammond. It was a fun day for the class, and several said they finally felt like seniors!

Congrats to the senior class of 2018!

LIFE SKILLS CORNUCOPIA

This month in Life Skills we focused on Appreciation and being Thankful. November and December are special months for many reasons and one reason is it's the Season of Giving and being thankful for what you have. We discussed and listed what we are thankful for and why we are thankful. Each class was assigned a specific fruit or vegetable and were to write in the fruit what they are thankful for and color it. After all classes were taught, we displayed all fruits and vegetables in the Cornucopia and celebrated our blessings. The collaborative effort was beautiful and heartwarming and the students really enjoyed this activity!

Life Skills Rocks!
