

Free Workshop: May 8th, 2017

How to Create Accessible Community Events and Best Practices

Come and learn about how to make your organization inclusive to people with disabilities.

Hear first hand accounts about struggles people with disabilities may face when trying to be involved in community events, meetings and, activities.

Learn information about the requirements and guidelines every organization should have when hosting events.

Figure 1: woman holding sign

Where: MLK Jr. Wing, Eastside Branch Library (1102 East Montecito Street, Santa Barbara CA 93103)

Time: 10 am – 12 pm

HOSTED BY INDEPENDENT LIVING RESOURCE CENTER, INC.

RSVP: Please by May 1st via email at jlesner@ilrc-trico.org

Light refreshments will be provided. The location is wheelchair accessible. If other accommodations are needed please email Jacob Lesner-Buxton at jlesner@ilrc-trico.org.

