Did you file a VA claim and disagree with the decision?

With the implementation of the VA Appeals Modernization Act on February 19, you have more choice in how you resolve a disagreement with a VA decision. You can also expect a more efficient, timely and transparent process. This new process is the result of years of collaboration between VA, Veterans and Veterans Service Organizations.

Under the new law, Veterans can choose one of three options to have a disagreement reviewed:

- Option 1: Higher-Level Review Lane Select this option if there is no additional evidence to submit, but you believe there may have been an error in the initial decision. A more experienced reviewer will take a fresh look at the previous decision and may overturn it.
- Option 2: Supplemental Claim Lane Choose this option if you have new and relevant evidence to support a claim. VA will also assist in gathering evidence.
- Option 3: Appeal Lane You can appeal directly to the Board of Veterans' Appeals.
