

CLARENCE A. FRITZ

1910-1993

Clarence A. Fritz, 83 of Elkton, died Thursday, Nov. 25, in Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon, following a brief illness.

Mr. Fritz was born in Linkville on June 16, 1910, the son of Edward and Amelia (Fibranz) Fritz. He farmed in the Elkton Area for many years. Mr. Fritz served in the U.S. Army during World War II and was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church, Linkville.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews, and a special friend, Gladys Hayes.

Two sisters, Gertrude Jahr and Mathilda Gaeth, one brother, Raymond Fritz, and one niece, Patricia Faust, all preceded him in death.

The funeral service took place Saturday afternoon, Nov. 27, in Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home, Sebawaing, with Rev. Timothy Lowe officiating. Burial was in St. John Lutheran Cemetery, Sebawaing.

Friends wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider St. Paul Church in Linkville.