Lake County Debt Rating Raised to AA- from A After Sale of Broadband Enterprise

Lake County, Minnesota: Standard & Poor's Global Ratings raised its rating on Lake County's general obligation (GO) debt to AA- with a stable outlook from A, following the sale of the county's broadband enterprise. In its two-notch upgrade, S&P recognized Lake County's consistently strong financial operating results, demonstrated by very strong liquidity and budgetary flexibility through healthy fund balances and strong overall budgetary performance. "We are pleased with S&P's recognition of the county's strong financial management and ongoing fiscal stability," said County Board Chair Rich Sve. The stable outlook reflects S&P's view that Lake County will continue to maintain very strong financial operating results in the next two years.

Letter to the Editor

A Little Too Quiet.....

Our neighborhood is a little quieter this Sunday morning. There's no sound of the pickup truck backing up our driveway, those white backup lights, at 6am driven by newspaper "boy" Dick Singleton.

After 20 years, Dick delivered his last load of Duluth News Tribune papers on Sunday, August 25, 2019. It was no surprise. The gracious man Dick Singleton is, he enclosed a copy of a hand-written note in that classic blue plastic bag-bundled newspaper,

"I wanted to let you know that Sunday Aug. 25, 2019 will be the last day for me to deliver the paper. I hope that the Tribune will find someone to continue the delivery. It's been 20 years I've been doing this and I've only missed 3 Sundays, and I've enjoyed it. Thank you very much."
(signed) Richard Singleton

As we got to know each other the paper moved from our green mailbox at the end of our drive to being tossed onto our nature-beaten sidewalk leading from our house and then tossed onto the deck. A newspaper boy has to toss it at some point, right? It was always there, save for some big and/or vicious storms, but eventually it would show up.

Sometimes I'd walk out and down my deck steps to greet Dick and talk neighborhood-talk, whatever. It was always good in the otherwise quiet of Sunday morning. Me, in my pajamas, bathrobe and slippers and Dick, standing there always with his Vietnam Veteran's hat worn proudly and slightly cocked, hands-in-pockets. Of course, like so many (I hope), we left Dick holiday treats in our mailbox or hand delivered the "goods" after his walk-up of Suze's homemade cookies, bread or the old man's frozen northern filet from Somewhere Lake.

Such a gracious, gentle man.

I guess no one wanted to jump on Dick's route, his community service, so the company will now mail it to us a day late and no fewer dollars short. Getting your Sunday newspaper on Monday doesn't quite cut it.

So Dick, I guess you'll spend more time tossing bean bags than newspapers.

God speed , my friend.
